Decimosegundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Do Not Be Afraid

First Reading

The LORD has rescued the poor from the clutches of the wicked (Jeremiah 20:10-13).

The first words of our First Reading can be quite chilling. "Terror" is a word with which we have become all too familiar, and the prophet Jeremiah suffered the threat of it from his own people for having prophesied to them about their infidelities and sins. As a consequence, he is considered not only a prophet of the Babylonian exile, which was the punishment that God exacted for the infidelities and sins on the part of his people, but also prophet of the suffering Saviour. Many of Jeremiah's words are employed in the Lenten season to express the inner turmoil of Christ himself as he approached and underwent his Passion and Death. But his words extend, too, to Christ's Resurrection, which we can see reflected in the final portion of this text, which launches into a brief and energetic song of praise to God for vindicating the poor one and saving him from death.

As we have so often seen in the Lectionary, this theme of the suffering prophet will be echoed in the texts that follow, showing that God has arranged history so that his lessons of wisdom are repeated or echoed throughout that history. We might be reminded of the old educational maxim that "repetition is the mother of learning." This week we see Jeremiah, then Paul, and finally our Lord Jesus reinforce the importance of his saving work and to convince us of his love. We are all slow learners of this lesson, and so it bears repeating.

Second Reading

The grace of God overflows for all (Romans 5:12-15).

St. Paul teaches the Church in Rome that Jesus, and the great gift he gives us, is best understood in the light of the loss of the gift of grace that we suffered in Adam. He tells us that Adam is a "type" of Jesus; that is, he serves as a prophetic reflection of the Christ to come. How so? Didn't Adam sin and pass the effects of his sin, to us? While Adam deprived us of original justice, the harmony between himself, Eve, and the rest of creation, through his sin, his likeness to Christ is not in his sin. Rather, the effects of both Adam's and Jesus's acts had universal effects for the human race. Adam, as the first man and father of all, passed the guilt of original sin to us all, as a kind of genetic defect. Jesus, who also only had God as his Father, grants us a new sonship: not the natural and fallen sonship that we gain from Adam but a new share in a supernatural sonship, his own Sonship, which is untainted by any such defect.

Gospel Reading

All who acknowledge Jesus before others will likewise be acknowledged by Jesus before the Father (Matthew 10:26-33).

Our passage from chapter 10 of the Gospel of Matthew falls after Matthew presents Jesus first as prophetic teacher in the Sermon on the Mount (chapters 5-7) and then as a miracle worker (chapters 8-9). This reading shows us Jesus sharing his own authority and mission with the Twelve Disciples. What this tells us is that just as figures like Adam and Jeremiah speak through their lives and actions of the coming of Jesus, those of us on the other side of his coming who are sent into the world in his name to continue his mission express that same principle of repetition or echoing of the divine message. Being true to that mission, even with all the trials it will bring, unites us vitally with Christ, both now and in Heaven. The Catechism, quoting St. John Eudes, tells us:

We must continue to accomplish in ourselves the stages of Jesus' life and his mysteries and often beg him to perfect and realize them in us and in his whole Church.... For it is the plan of the Son of God to make us and the whole Church partake in his mysteries and to extend them to and continue them in us and in his whole Church. This is his plan for fulfilling his mysteries in us.¹⁹⁴ (CCC 521) All of history has been prepared by God to grant us this wonderful place in his plan: to manifest him by fearlessly taking up the prophetic mantle ourselves.

Grow in Discipleship

Jesus was very clear about the cost of discipleship. It might entail family division, persecution, and even death. He didn't mince words when he talked about the hardships his followers would face. And yet, at the same time he says, "Do not be afraid."

Isn't this a bit of a contradiction? Does it seem odd that Jesus warns us about future difficulties but then tells us not to worry? However, the key to understanding this Sunday's Gospel reading lies in what Jesus means by "fear." First, Jesus is telling us that we should not fear our enemies in this world. We needn't have the kind of stomach churning, heart-pounding fear that comes from being terrified of the persecutions we may face. God the Father knows us even down to the hairs on our head, and he will be with us to help us face whatever sufferings we might encounter.

In today's Gospel, the Lord encourages us, instead of fearing persecution, to have instead a healthy fear of the Lord—which is the fear or awe that a person might have in the presence of a good, noble, and magnificent king.

That kind of fear empowers us to live out the Christian life in a heroic, un-fearful manner. By trusting in such a good God who will be with us in whatever obstacles we might face, we are free to be bold in our witness to the Gospel. Now while it's true that some Christians may be asked to give up their lives as a result of following Jesus, for most of us our call to heroism will consist of the daily sacrifices that ordinary life calls for. The sacrifice of forgoing gossip, of enduring insults, of being misunderstood, of holding our tongues and our tempers.

While today's Gospel might seem foreboding, we have nothing to fear. Even the worst thing that could happen—death—has been conquered by Christ's Resurrection.

DIGGING DEEPER: EYE ON THE SPARROW

Normally we think of a sparrow falling to the ground as meaning it has died, but the word used here can also be translated to mean "light upon" the ground. Jesus may be saying that not only does the Father know when each sparrow dies, but he also knows each time that it lands upon the ground. Such an intimate knowledge of creation is intended to give us great comfort that God indeed is with us in every moment of our lives.

The word "cent" is the translation of a Greek word for a coin that was worth 1/16 of a denarius, the average laborer's daily wage. In a parallel passage, Luke writes, "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies?" (Luke 12:6-7; RSV: 2CE). One would assume that if two sparrows cost one cent, then four should cost two pennies, but sparrows were so worthless, a fifth was thrown in by the merchant if a person spent two cents.

Prayers & Devotion

Creator of all things, true source of light and wisdom, lofty origin of all being, graciously let a ray of your brilliance penetrate into the darkness of my understanding and take from me the double darkness in which I have been born, an obscurity of both sin and ignorance. Give me a sharp sense of understanding, a retentive memory, and the ability to grasp things correctly and fundamentally. Grant me the talent of being exact in my explanations, and the ability to express myself with thoroughness and charm. Point out the beginning, direct the progress, and help in completion; through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Introducing Nathaniel Mayne

My name is Nathaniel Mayne, and I've been a member of this parish on and off ever since I was about two years old. This instability was reflective of the instability of my faith, and in high school, like many others in my generation, I fell away from the Church. This falling away stemmed from an inadequate and immature understanding of the faith, and it was only after I sat down and looked at the teachings of the Church that I discovered their depth and radiance. The truth of the Catholic faith is how God, in His infinite mercy, drew me back into the Church and thereby towards Himself. As he continued to pull me towards Himself, I was struck by the challenge of authentic love. The high demand of our call to emulate Christ's love on the cross made me rethink my life. Before then, I was planning on pursuing a career as an orchestra musician, but I began to feel that God was calling me into a different direction. I started to realize that the way God made me to love was through living a celibate life where I can have the freedom to love every person I meet with everything I have. As I began to discern the priesthood, I felt drawn to the Dominican Order. This order focuses on the preaching of the Gospel and by extension the preaching of truth. Just as God drew me to Himself by the splendor and beauty of truth, so I began to realize that he was calling me to share this truth with others. I will be entering the Dominican Order on August 15th to pursue ordination to the priesthood and the preaching of the Gospel. Please continue to pray for me and my discernment, and if you have any questions about the order you can visit opwest.org and feel free to ask me when you see me around.

Finding Our Lives

If you ask people what they want, they'll often say that they want a new car, a better job, a bigger house, or some other possession. But if you probe a little deeper, you'll find that they don't really want possessions. Rather, they desire a sense of fulfillment, a feeling of being loved and cherished.

Every Catholic man is encouraged to take this wholesome and rewarding step in his personal faith journey. Talk to one of our Knights outside of church after every mass this weekend.

In 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney gathered a small group of parishioners in St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn. His purpose was to establish a group of men, united in their faith, and to provide for Catholic families in times of need. This was the beginning of the Knights of Columbus. Guided by the principles of charity, unity, and fraternity, members of the Knights of Columbus work to overcome the hardships that people face in their parishes and communities. Joining the Knights of Columbus can change your life. As a Knight, you have the opportunity to strengthen your parish, give back to your community and grow in your faith.

Reflexiones de Domingo

CON TU CONSTANTE AYUDA, OH DIOS

"He escuchado las calumnias de la gente: '¡Terror por todas partes!' " (Jeremías 20:10). ¿De qué tenemos miedo? ¿Tenemos miedo de las personas que hablan mal de nosotros? ¿De aquellos que curiosean en nuestras vidas? ¿Tenemos miedo de caer en la pobreza? ¿De la guerra en nuestro país? Se dice que aquí en Estados Unidos podemos ser pobres después de una hospitalización y nos llegue la cuenta del hospital; no deberíamos ser tan confiados de nuestros bienes materiales. Nunca sabemos lo que nos puede pasar. Debemos ser misericordiosos con aquellas personas que han caído en la desgracia, y estar listo para ayudar a nuestras hermanas y hermanos, así como Dios tiene misericordia y nos ayuda cuando tropezamos y caemos.

NO TENGAS MIEDO A ALGUIEN

La pobreza existe, así como la muerte existe. ¡Pero no debemos rendirnos o perder esperanza! Pues Dios conoce todas nuestras necesidades y está listo para ayudarnos. "Porque el Señor escucha a los necesitados, y no rechaza a los cautivos (Salmo 69:34). Quizás seamos o no seamos pobres materialmente, pero somos víctimas de nuestra propia tendencia hacia el pecado. Así como Adán todos murieron, en Cristo todos permanecen vivos. "Pero no hay comparación entre el delito y el don. Porque si por el delito de uno solo todos murieron, mucho más la gracia de Dios, hecha don gratuito en otro hombre, Jesucristo se ha derramado abundantemente sobre todos" (Romanos 5:15). Buscamos a Dios por su misericordia y su consuelo en nuestras necesidades. Dios escucha nuestra oración; y en los escondites secretos de nuestro corazón herido Dios nos consuela y nos ofrece la salvación. "Así pues, no les tengan miedo; porque no hay nada oculto que no vaya a manifestarse, nada secreto que no vaya a saberse. Lo que yo les digo en la oscuridad, díganlo a plena luz; lo que escuchen al oído, proclámenlo desde las azoteas" (Mateo 10:26-27). Podemos ser pobres materialmente, o tener miedo a ese tipo de pobreza. Todos somos pobres en nuestras faltas, pequeñas o grandes, pero no debemos tener miedo, porque Dios está con nosotros por medio de su misericordia y amor. "No tengan miedo a los que matan el cuerpo, pero no pueden quitar la vida" (Mateo 10:28). En Dios se puede confiar.
