Reflect &

partial reflections of and, in some cases, entirely opposed to his will.

Sometimes God teaches us through the partial, sometimes by way of the entirely negative lessons that our human mistakes can provide. Qoheleth (meaning one who speaks in the qahal or the public assembly) represents the true situation of the one who has not yet received the fuller revelation that we have in Christ. The world makes much more sense to us after Jesus enters time and history in a direct way to show us its value. But the basic message of Qoheleth remains sound, the true value of the things of time and history must be measured by the things of eternity, otherwise they are vain.

Second Reading

Christ has raised you to new life, so seek now what is above (Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11).

Looking at this passage from Colossians, we reflect again on the point made about the first reading from Ecclesiastes: We have to understand the shape of history in order to read it rightly. That shape is given in the Creed and turns on three seminal events—creation, redemption, and sanctification. These are all acts of God and unless we understand them we will misjudge almost everything else in human experience. Creation is a beautiful gift, but one that from the beginning we have often misused. Adam and Eve misused the gift of their freedom and made creation into what St. Paul calls the “world” or the “earthly” (which is creation separated from its Creator). In the Redemption we receive the grace to reconnect creation to its Creator, to “what is above.” If, while here below, we “seek what is above,” where Christ is with the Father, then we can become a part of the very work of renewal that God is working in the world through the Holy Spirit.

Vanity of Vanities

Reflection by Opening the Word

First Reading

Do not spend your life toiling for material gain (Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23).

Readers of Ecclesiastes are sometimes shocked by what they take to be its apparent cynicism. Are all things really just vanity? (The Hebrew word means something like a puff of wind.) Is this really what we ought to believe? Is this what the Bible teaches? Aren’t we to value the things of God’s creation as gifts? Isn’t life valuable in all its aspects, if for no other reason than because it comes from God and can lead us to him? The answer to all these questions is “yes!” We sometimes mistakenly think that since everything in the Bible is inspired by God and true, that everything that is said or done in it is fully approved by God. The Bible is an inspired and true chronicle of the persons, words, and events by which God discloses himself to us. But sometimes the people and the words they speak or the things they do are only

Discuss

Through his sanctifying work we are “renewed,” taking off the “old self” and putting on the “new self.” We become reunified within, regaining the integrity (the “image of [the] creator”) our first parents lost through sin and rejecting those things—“immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry”—that would fracture us within and yield division without. In this way we are renewed, too, “for knowledge” and begin to see the true shape of history and the real values of things, where “Christ is all in all”.

Gospel

Be on guard against all greed, for your life does not consist of earthly possessions, but of the riches of the reign of God (Luke 12:13-21).

One of the characteristic signs of a deep faith is the ability to embrace the poverty of spirit that Jesus enjoins in the Beatitudes and here in Luke. St. Paul says in Philippians 4:11-13 (RSV): “I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want. I can do all things in him who strengthens me.”

There is nothing wrong in rejoicing in plenty. The real danger is the greed that the habit of plenty can so easily engender in us. (How, after all, can we know if we can be content without our goods, if we never actually are?) In the West, and especially in the United States, we are constantly tempted by the spirit of greed. As we saw in the second reading, greed is associated with idolatry, illegitimate worship. When anything -- financial security, status, our sexual appetites, celebrity--begins to win our hearts and to become the focus of our desire and efforts, we have begun to turn toward false worship. Orthodoxy, which can mean “right worship” (orthos = straight and doxa = glory), requires not just right thinking about the things of the world but a proper ordering of our desires. We do well to have the doxology always on our lips to protect us from the spirit of greed: “[All] Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit...” and to keep us from hearing those frightening words, “You fool,” from the mouth of Jesus.

Meditation

Before we enter into the scene in the Gospel passage, take a moment to think about your possessions. Which ones are most precious to you? Which ones are nice but not that important? Which ones do you feel you absolutely could not do without?

Now imagine that you are the rich man in the parable in today’s Gospel reading. What are your “grain” and “goods”? Are you building bigger barns to store your treasure? If God told you that this very night your life would be demanded of you, how would you view all your possessions and all your hard work to acquire them? Finally, consider Jesus’ words, “Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” What feelings do his words stir in you? Is he warning you against some particular manifestation of greed in your life?

Special Intentions

For our new principal, Bernadette Brehm, and the St Michael School staff, parents and students, that they may be filled with the Holy Spirit as they prepare for a new school year.

For those who are sick in body, mind and heart, that they may receive Christ's healing through the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick.

For all of our parishioners who are traveling, that they may enjoy their rest and relaxation and return to us safely.

For every person who enters our church, our Perpetual Adoration Chapel, and those who walk and drive by our church, that they may receive God's blessings.

For all those who are struggling, especially couples facing difficulties in their marriages, parents making tough decisions, and young adults exploring a life of new independence.

For the Repose of Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. And may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Our NEWER Principal Mrs. Bernadette Brehm

As mentioned previously, Teri Moss was hired as our new principal at St Michael School. However, after signing her acceptance letter and agreeing to the position, Mrs. Moss had to remove herself due to family obligations. The Principal Search Committee was brought together earlier this week, and it was determined that Mrs. Bernadette Brehm would be our St. Michael School Principal.

Mrs. Brehm will bring strong leadership to St. Michael School, as she has worked over 20 years in Catholic education here in the Diocese of Oakland. She is extremely excited to share her love for teaching, and our Catholic faith. She will help take St Michael School to the next level, so that we can live our school motto of "Excellence, Strengthened By Faith".

About the Angels

The new angels in the church call to mind the tabernacle of the Old Testament, where on top stood two angels, symbols of God's divine presence and power. As Catholics, we know that Jesus is God and His body, blood, soul and divinity are present in our tabernacle.

Our angels were donated by Fr. Van and a group of anonymous donors. Fr. Van, along with the building committee and commissioned artists, are in the process of planning the new look of the interior space to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the church. The angels are the first of many steps toward the finished look.

Upcoming

Rite of Acceptance

Sunday, August 14 at 9:30 Mass

During this Jubilee Year of Mercy we've heard a lot about doors. The door of the church is an important symbol, for when we cross the church threshold we leave behind the world outside and enter "the realm of salvation."

On August 14, the 9:30 Mass assembly will have the privilege of going out to meet and accompany an inquirer as she crosses the threshold and begins her journey to the waters of baptism. All will be invited to gather before Mass by the front steps. Our liturgy will begin outside that day with the Rite of Acceptance.

Join a Small Group Study Register by September 11

St Michael parishioners will have the opportunity to register to join a small home-based group of eight to grow in faith and build strong communities. We will have three program formats available:

Study the Bible and the faith. Parishioners will have access to 38 programs by Ascension Press.

Reflect on the Sunday Mass Readings.

Gather for a Catholic Book Club.

Register NOW online at StMichael-Livermore.com (from the menu, choose Group Study then Home-based Study). "In Person" registration will be after all Masses on September 11. Groups will be assigned in the week to follow. Group Host orientation will be on September 17 and 22. Un frasco con miel prácticamente dura por siempre. El frasco de miel más antiguo descubierto tenía casi más de cinco mil años de antigüedad. La miel es muy diferente de cualquier otro alimento producido; entonces porque muchas frutas y vegetales solo duran unos pocos días si las cuidamos. En este tiempo del verano, nos apresuramos a encontrar recetas para cerezas y pepinos para no desperdiciar ni uno solo. Pero no tendríamos la misma prisa para la miel.

En nuestra propia manera, somos como una de esas frutas y vegetales frágiles y maduros. Las lecturas de hoy nos sugieren a no echarnos a perder, sino a hacer un buen uso de nuestros limitado tiempo en la tierra. El libro del Eclesiastés nos recuerda que ya que Dios provee para nosotros ahora y siempre, podemos administrar nuestros asuntos diarios sin ninguna ansiedad. San Pablo anima a los colosenses a mantener pensamientos del cielo en todo lo que hacen y Jesús mismo nos pide que no atesoremos riqueza terrenal sino solo a Dios.

TIEMPO PARA DESEM-POLVAR

Ruth Hulbert Hamilton escribió un poema titulado Song for a Fifth Child, que es acerca de las muchas ocupaciones en el tiempo de una madre. Al final, en el poema hay dos líneas que muestran cómo la madre reparte sus prioridades y pide a las telarañas y al polvo callarse e irse a dormir para que ella pueda arrullar a su bebé porque los bebés necesitan tiempo. Este poema ha ayudado a innumerables niñeras a diferencias cuánto tiempo deben trabajar y el tiempo que deben jugar con sus niños. El libro del Eclesiastés parece afirmar esta idea, sugiriendo que una casa perfectamente desempolvada y ordenada eventualmente llegará a la nada.

Y sin embargo, no queremos niños que crezcan en la miseria. En algún punto, aún el trabajo menos importante necesitará hacerse. Pedimos al Señor, entonces, que guie nuestros corazones y nos ayude a elegir cómo pasar nuestro tiempo de la mejor manera que agrade a Dios. Aún la fastidiosa tarea de desempolvar la casa, es una manera que puede ayudarnos a rezar. El polvo nos recuerda de donde venimos y hacia donde vamos. Los seres humanos estamos hechos de polvo y al polvo regresaremos (ver Eclesiastés 3:20).

LA HISTORIA DE LA CENICIENTA

Estamos hechos de polvo y seguramente al polvo regresaremos algún día. Quizá esto parezca deprimente al principio, pero debemos de alegrarnos. El salmo confirma que vamos a "marchitarnos y desaparecer", pero san Pablo nos recuerda que hemos resucitado con Cristo. Nuestras vidas no son una monotonía sin sentido. ¡No! El mismo Cristo ha elegido a gente polvoriento aparecer con él en la gloria. Por lo tanto, en nuestra lista de cosas por hacer cada día deben referirse a nuestra salvación. Sabiendo que moriremos nos ayuda a poner prioridades en nuestro trabajo terrenal.

Sabiendo que viviremos por siempre en el cielo nos ayuda a crecer en una intimidad alegre con Jesús. Y cuando vivimos en unión con Jesús, ofreciéndole a él todo lo que hacemos, vemos más claramente cómo almacenar el tesoro correcto. La vida en Jesús nos hará "ricos en lo que importa a Dios".
