FROM FR CARL

4 LESSONS FROM THE PANDEMIC

Dear St Michael Family,

After three months of sheltering in place and celebrating Mass via livestream only, we are back inside the church with a limited number of people to participate in the source and summit of our Christian life.

I would like to share with you four lessons I have learned during this time of pandemic:

We are a vibrant, reverent Church.

The devil was happy that we were not able to celebrate Mass together in person, but later he found out that we grew ever stronger! I saw so many people parking in front of the church to pray, or to kneel down for a moment or two, or simply to make the sign of the cross. These gestures of faith reminded me that the physical church building is still relevant in the lives of people as a symbol of faith. As symbol of hope. As a place to be in proximity of God's presence to feel His loving touch and mercy.

Love for the Eucharist.

Hundreds of people came to parking lot and drive-up benedictions. Hundreds of people came every day to receive Holy Communion after livestream Masses. Over fifty cars processed behind the Blessed Sacrament downtown on Corpus Christi, praying for peace. I saw tears in their eyes as hearts overflowed to be near our Lord. This confirmed even more my conviction that the Eucharist really is the center and foundation of our Catholic life. It is the center point of our identity. It is who we are as we live in this world and prepare ourselves for the next life with God in eternity.

The support of people.

I have seen many parishioners step to generously give more than their usual offering, sustaining and stabilizing our ability to meet the spiritual needs of the community. I have seen my brothers in clergy, seminarians, staff and volunteers go above and beyond to continue our services and ministry. And because parishioners frequently called us to ask what we needed, food was always abundant in the rectory! I realize that without you, the people of God, the Church is not a Church. It is because of selfless and generous parishioners that our parish continues to serve and exist for its purpose of saving souls and bringing their hearts closer to God. Indeed, your generosity has motivated us priests to be more generous with our time and effort as well.

Sacrament of Confession.

Since mid-March, we priests have been very busy listening hundreds of confessions every week, and we all feel blessed and happy to do it! This sacrament truly affirms for us priests of our vocation as wounded healers and dispensers of God's mercy and grace. What an awesome gift to be God's agent and instrument of peace and healing for people who are hurting! St John Vianney and St Padre Pio are known for giving their time and their energy to this Sacrament. Hence, I will make a decree in this parish that we priests will sit for 8 hours to hear confessions on the feast day of St. John Vianney (August 4) and St. Padre Pio (September 23). Watch for more details to come.

Thank you for these beautiful lessons. May we continue to grow in love in Christ together. God bless all of you and may He protect us all always!

Fr. Carl

JOIN THE PARISH AUDIO VISUAL TEAM

So we can continue to livestream Mass!

In order to continue to livestream Mass, we need 10-12 people to join the Parish Audio Visual Team.

Job includes setting the camera feeds to go live, and monitoring the Mass from the "production room" in the sacristy. Training is provided, and a step-by-step cheat sheet will be posted. The job is not difficult, but candidates must be unafraid of tech :)

PLEASE call Eric Hom if interested and pass along to any friends who might be good candidates.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the "small deaths" and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self-focused and closed.

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

God is Love

I was recently at a Catholic conference and had a conversation with someone living in the thick of Hollywood culture. He was Catholic and spoke of how hard it was to live out his faith amid tremendous temptation and negativity toward religion. He spoke about how going to daily Mass helped to keep him centered and stay strong in his faith. He was a great witness to living out one's faith in the face of disbelief.

One thing that he told me stood out above all the rest. He spoke of his engagement to his fiancé and how important it was to him that God was a major part of their relationship and their lives as individuals as well. He told me he said something to her like, "If you don't love Jesus more than you love me, this is never going to work." What an amazing and truly moving witness!

Songs and books are written about the intense longing one human being can have for another. We can describe another as meaning everything to us. We speak of wanting to offer our complete selves to our beloved. However, true love is about more than wanting to be with that person. It is about wanting that person to know a love even greater than theirs: the love of God. No love can last without God. My Hollywood friend knew this to be the case. He showed his true love for his wife-to-be by sharing more than himself — he shared the very One who created love.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:
Calling Priests Father

Question:

Why do Catholics call priests Father?

Answer:

One of the common objections evangelical Christians have to Catholics is our practice of calling priests by the title Father. They will often cite a passage in Matthew's Gospel in which Jesus tells his followers: "Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven" (23:19). It seems pretty straightforward, but when we put this verse in context, we see that Jesus is speaking out against religious leaders who had forgotten what their proper role was and who were bad examples through their own hypocrisy and elitist attitudes.

In other Gospels, we find Jesus himself using the title father for different characters, such as in the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31) and the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). If we put the verse from Matthew into the full scope of Jesus' teachings, he isn't saying that we can't use words like "father," "rabbi," or "master." Rather, he is telling us that we should be mindful of the full meaning of those titles and not to misuse them.

To call a priest "Father" is more than a sign of respect for the office of the priesthood. It goes all the way back to the way St. Paul understood his own work as a missionary and evangelizer. Paul wrote, "I am writing you in this way not to shame you but to admonish you as my beloved children ... It was I who begot you in Christ Jesus through my preaching of the Gospel. I beg you, then, be imitators of me. This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 4:14-17).

Yes, we have God alone as our heavenly Father, but there are also those here with us who nurture and nourish our faith through their teaching and care. This is why the title of Father has been applied to the church's pastors in different ways since the earliest days of the Church, including monks and nuns using the title "abbot" and "abbess" (from abba) for their spiritual leaders and Christians around the world recognizing the "Holy Father" or "pope" (from papa) as the head of the family that is the Church. The title Father is a reminder that priests have a special responsibility to care for, protect, feed, listen to, and nourish those who have been entrusted to them, all after the example of our Father in heaven who never ceases to give us what we truly need.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

We hear how the prophet Elisha and his servant Gehazi repaid the Shunammite woman for her generous hospitality. When have you shown excessive generosity to another?

Second Reading

Paul taught the Roman Christians that through Baptism, believers fully participate in the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. How should this reality impact one's day-to-day living?

Gospel Reading

Jesus continues to teach his followers the challenges of discipleship. What do you find most challenging in following Christ?

Compassionate and Loving Father,
In the face of confusion and concern
impart to us the calm of Your presence.
In You allow us to find hope and healing.
Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.
Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
Wrap Your arms around our world
and hold us in Your love.
Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.
We ask this in Your Name.

3 EASY STEPS

To Keeping Yourself & Others Healthy!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

Wash Your Hands

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

Don't Touch Your Face

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

Keep Your Distance

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
