TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 23, 2018

Whoever receives one child such as this in my name,
receives me;
and whoever
receives me,
receives not me
but the One who sent me.

Everyday Crosses

In this week's Gospel, Jesus is nearing the end of his journey with his disciples. Soon after these events, he will turn towards Jerusalem to face his Passion. He is beginning to pull his Apostles aside for intimate moments, revealing more deeply his heart, teachings, and mission on earth.

The Apostles have spent almost three years with Jesus, but here it is evident that they still don't fully know him. It can be challenging to watch them misunderstand Jesus so many times, but we can relate to them more than we realize. Because Jesus is God, there will always be things about him that we cannot fully understand because our minds are finite. Moreover, the ways of God are not like our ways. His kingdom, his mission, and his promises aren't what we expect.

The logic of the Gospel is the logic of God, not of humans. Today, Jesus wants to pull us aside for an intimate moment to reveal his heart more deeply to us and to teach us his logic that will lead to our true joy, just as he did for his Apostles.

First Reading Reflection Wisdom 2:12, 17–20

It may seem odd to read a quote from the wicked, or ungodly men in the Book of Wisdom. In the ancient world, the wise men understood the reason behind things and ordered all things in their lives rightly, or prudently. Knowledge of the highest or first cause would bring the greatest wisdom. Consider that God is the First Cause of all things and that knowing more about God would necessarily mean understanding more about everything that he has created. In short, the religious person who strives to know more about the God he or she loves will generally be the wisest. So, it is that the saints are often revered as much for their wisdom as their goodness. To be good, however, one must also understand the absence of goodness—wickedness—in order to avoid that which is wicked.

As the “just one” in the book of Wisdom is associated with Jesus, so also “the wicked” are often associated with those who oppose Jesus’s ministry. Compare our reading this week with those who revile him at the foot of the Cross in Matthew 27:39-44. The Church sees the Passion of Jesus as fulfilling the poor treatment of the “just one” by “the wicked” as described here in the book of Wisdom. This book is worth a thorough reading for its faith-filled assertion of the final victory of good over evil and life over death.

Second Reading Reflection

James 3:16—4:3

In the second reading, Saint James addresses the question of why there is so little peace in the world. Peace, he tells us, is not found in the pursuit of what the world offers us, but in heavenly things. It is found in “wisdom from above.” The world often talks about discovering peace, but no one can deny that we still live in a world filled with turmoil and chaos; the evidence is too obvious and too immediate to deny. We live in a world that is marked by conflict. There is conflict in global matters, at the national level, and even in local communities between friends and families. Somehow, our pursuit of peace has fallen far short of the mark.

This lack of peace, as history shows us, is rooted in man’s desire for what he does not have. In itself, this desire is not bad. We should be motivated by the desire to receive those things that God has waiting for us. Nevertheless, we place things such as material goods, sensual satisfaction, and recognition before God. Because temporal things can never fully satisfy us, we grow frustrated and become jealous of one another, which leads us into open conflict.

As Christians, we see things differently. The wisdom of God is timeless. All peace begins within the soul of the individual person, because she is given entirely to the service of God. Peace cannot begin anywhere else. Peace of soul, as spoken of by St. James, is the only peace that can ultimately bring lasting peace. God's ways are not our ways. If we truly desire peace of soul, we should surrender our desires to God and look for his peace, not the peace of the world.

Gospel Reading Reflection

Mark 9:30–37

Even though Jesus just told the disciples that he is going to the sacred city of Jerusalem to suffer ridicule and death, they choose to spend the journey talking about which among them is the greatest. They are not thinking with the mind of the Lord. Why do the disciples fail to realize the nature of the journey to Jerusalem and the cross? Once we lose sight of the destination or goal of our journey, we usually get lost. This is what happened to the disciples spiritually. As they traveled to Jerusalem, they were thinking of power, namely, those who had the most importance among themselves. We, like the disciples, can lose sight of the real spiritual significance of life and the Father's call for us, if we do not remain in the presence of Jesus as we journey toward the heavenly Jerusalem. The disciples teach us that we must stay with Jesus if we want to be with him in Heaven.

Join the Discussion

The logic of the Gospel includes the Cross. If God were only concerned with our present life, then allowing suffering in our lives would not make sense. But God is fundamentally concerned about our eternal life! Our way to heaven is through Jesus Christ, by uniting with him in his suffering and death so that we can rejoice with him in his Resurrection and ours.

As you watch the short video on StMichael.FORMED.org, reflect on how you can embrace the Cross in your daily life. Share your answers to the following questions with a family member or friend or in the online St Michael Discussion group found at StMichael.FORMED.org

What are some of the differences between the kingdoms of this world and the kingdom of God?

How would you describe the logic of the Gospel based on the readings today and your other knowledge of Scripture?

Who are the people you encounter in your everyday life? How can you think of these people as an integral part of your growth in holiness? Loving them will require you to pick up your crosses and grow in virtue.

What are some crosses you have right now that you could begin to carry out of love for those in your daily life?

Mass intentions will not be accepted through the mail and will only be taken in the Church Office.

Instead of making strategic plans to overthrow the Romans and bestow wealth on his disciples, Jesus tells them that he will suffer and die, and that they must become the servants of all.

Let's return to the Gospel for this week. Take the word that comes to mind and reflect on what it means to you personally. For example, the phrase, "They were afraid to ask him," might have stuck out to you. Ask yourself what this means in your own life. Is Jesus trying to calm your fears about approaching him, inviting you to come to know him more deeply and to let him help you carry your cross?

RESOLUTION

St Therese of Lisieux lived with a particularly tiresome and notoriously difficult elderly nun. Instead of defending herself against her, ignoring her, or even just trying to mind her own business, Therese went out of her way to take care of this nun. Because she was dedicated to God in contemplative prayer, she was able to recognize that she was serving God by showing compassion to the sisters around her.

Therese said that she had a very real, supernatural experience of God loving through her actions when she knew she was incapable of loving this difficult nun on her own. Instead of mustering up the strength in herself, or not even trying out of fear, she remained weak and little, relying on God's love to work through her for her sister.

What feels impossible to us because of our weakness is always possible with God. Take a moment and ask the Holy Spirit to inspire you to be compassionate toward one particular person this week. Ask for the grace to change your disposition or attitude toward them.

PRAYER REQUESTS

For our parish as we approach our Centennial celebration, for those who have gone before us, for our current parishioners and for those yet to come.

For the repose of the souls of Terence Lee Currie and Robert Godfrey.

Please send prayer requests to Prayers@StMichaelLivermore.com

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.
(Psalm 136:1)

As we approach the day of the 100 - year anniversary celebration of our church, and the days we will celebrate our parish Fall Festival, I would like to thank the hard-working members of all committees behind the planning and execution of this historic event.

The involvement of many volunteers expresses who we are as a community and as a church. With your hands, energy and talents, we can do great things for God and for our parish family. I pray that our 100-year anniversary will unite us rather than divide us and will strengthen us rather than weaken us.

Our church—and especially our church’s stained-glass windows—are tangible testimonies of our strength. These are beautiful symbols of how we can unite our efforts to persevere in our mission to fulfill the plan of God. Our history speaks to us, which is essential to our future growth as a Christian community.

As the families of the past gave their heartfelt efforts for the mission of Christ, we who are still living have a important legacy to share. That legacy is none other than to make St Michael Parish a home, a place where our faith is nourished and where our love of God and others is sustained and perfected.

I appeal to all families and alumni of our school to join us next week-end for our celebration, beginning with our Centennial Mass on Friday at 6:00 pm with Bishop Michael Barber, SJ and a reception in the courtyard to follow. The celebration will continue with our parish Fall Festival on Saturday and Sunday. Please see the pages in this bulletin for all the details.

Let us rejoice in our history. Let us celebrate. Let us remember. Let us be thankful! Let us praise God!

Fr. Carl

Nuevo horario para la Oficina Parroquial

9:00 a.m. -12: 00 p.m.

2:00 p.m. -5 p.m.

Incluye una hora adicional de cierre que le permitirá a nuestro personal de oficina un período de tiempo ininterrumpido para devolver las llamadas telefónicas y correos electrónicos, y ponerse al día con las tareas que exige nuestra concurrida oficina parroquial.

Nueva política para las intenciones de la Misa

El libro de Intenciones para el año 2019 se abrirá el miércoles 3 de octubre, para permitir que más miembros de nuestra parroquia puedan solicitar intenciones. Tenga en cuenta los siguientes cambios que entrarán en vigencia a partir del 3 de octubre:

- Cada mes, de octubre a diciembre, los feligreses pueden solicitar hasta dos intenciones de misa solamente.
- Las intenciones para Misas no se aceptarán por correo postal y solo se tomarán en la Oficina de la Iglesia.
Gracias por su comprensión y cooperación al ayudar a servir a nuestra gran comunidad fiel.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Últimamente, hay mucho interés en los ángeles y sobre todo en los arcángeles. Según el catecismo católico, los ángeles existen para glorificar y servir a Dios y para ayudar con el plan salvífico de Jesucristo, cooperando con nuestras buenas obras. Lamentablemente muchos, en especial los de la New Age, se interesan sólo en los ángeles con el fin de utilizarlos en lugar de dejarse guiar por ellos.

La Tradición ha designado una jerarquía de 9 rangos entre los seres espirituales. Los serafines son los primeros y más cercanos a Dios y los ángeles son los últimos y más cercanos a la humanidad. En esta jerarquía, los arcángeles son los penúltimos en poder, aunque sí son los más buscados por su responsabilidad de cuidar los cuatro puntos cardinales de la creación. Según la tradición hebrea, hay siete arcángeles (Tobías 12:15), de los cuales las Sagradas Escrituras sólo mencionan tres por nombre, Miguel (¿Quién como Dios?), Gabriel (hombre de Dios) y Rafael (Dios sana). De estos, Miguel parece ser el más popular gracias a su poder contra el mal.

CÓMO TRATAMOS AL MENSAJERO

No debemos precipitarnos a definir quiénes son "los malvados" y quiénes (es decir nosotros) son los justos. Tendemos a clasificar rápidamente a los demás como malos, porque solemos considerarnos buenas personas. No nos gusta que una voz profética nos critique con malas noticias sobre nuestro propio comportamiento. No nos gusta que nos reprochen que hemos transgredido la ley ni que nos acusen de no haber actuado acorde a nuestra formación.

Puede que condenemos e insultemos a quienes nos enfrentan a estas verdades sobre nosotros mismos, pero si fuéramos realmente buenos, les agradeceríamos por ayudarnos a permanecer en el camino correcto. Éste es el trato que le dieron a los profetas y el trato que le dieron a Jesús. ¿Es éste también el trato que les damos a las personas cuyos mensajes no nos gustan?

Noches de Rosario Familiar

Los jueves de octubre a las 6:30 pm en el patio

Todos lo han escuchado ... "La Familia que Ora Junta Permanece Unida ...". Es cierto, la fe es un poderoso pegamento.

Los Caballeros están comprometidos a fortalecer la fe de nuestras familias en Livermore y qué mejor manera que recurrir a María al unísono como familia. Como un nuevo giro en sus rosarios tradicionales, nuestros Caballeros coordinarán rosarios dirigidos por familias en nuestras parroquias. Póngase en contacto con Mike Taranowski en taranowski1@gmail.com si está interesado en guiar uno de los rosarios de familia.
