GOSPEL REFLECTION

HEARTS OF Love & Humility

Lk 21:25-28, 34-36

Staying awake can often be a challenge, especially when we are exhausted. Life's demands have a way of zapping every last bit of energy out of us. When we are tired it affects us not only physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. All of our senses are dulled and diminished. We can overlook details, become disinterested, lethargic and apathetic, and detached. Getting sufficient physical rest only helps so much. We need to be rejuvenated, refreshed, and reenergized in other ways. If we are psychologically exhausted, we need to understand what is draining our emotions and taxing our relationships. If we are spiritually tired, we need to find the necessary "shot in the arm" to put us back in touch with God. Unfortunately, exhaustion is seldom limited to just one part of who we are. When we lack energy and zeal it is usually the case that everything suffers. We not only are affected physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. In short, when we run out of gas the engine stops.

And yet, our Lord's directive is clear, "Be vigilant at all times." Even Jesus knew what "the anxieties of daily life" can do to us. One day pours into another and time quickly flies by. Any one of us can take a moment and reflect on how many wonderful, creative opportunities we miss because there is always so much "stuff" to do and so little time to do it. Usually these are missed moments of love, and if we are missing love encounters we are also missing God. Sleepwalking through life, we check the boxes next to our list of "must and have to dos" and justify it all by convincing ourselves that tomorrow is another day and there'll be more time. It may surprise us, but tomorrow is here, and time is running out. While we may like to believe that we have an "eternity" of time to do all those things that require the focus, energy, and desire we do not currently have, we don't. We're on a limited ride and time is short.

Jesus is also clear on another point. "That day [will] catch you by surprise like a trap." If we are going to be judged on love and so easily justify not having all that much time to do so, then it seems we must shift focus a bit. St. Teresa of Calcutta tells us, "We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another." Getting to this place doesn't "just happen." It requires vigilance and discipline both with a knowledge of what is really of importance and what really needs to be the focus of our energy and time. Pray, starting now and not tomorrow, that we can stay alert, be strengthened in our faith, and prepared for whatever will come. Don't miss another opportunity to love.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Lc 21, 25-28. 34-36

Estemos preparados o no, hoy empieza el Adviento. Y es importante que notemos los siguientes puntos importantes para una mejor participación cuando asistimos a la Eucaristía. Estrenamos el Año Litúrgico e iniciamos un período de cuatro semanas dedicadas a prepararnos para la Navidad. Durante casi todo el año, escucharemos con gozo el Evangelio escrito por San Lucas, en el cual nos presenta a un Jesús muy sensible a los necesitados y muy compasivo con los pecadores. Describe la infancia de Jesús y la presencia de María en algunas de las narraciones. En este primer domingo de Adviento, Jesús nos trae la liberación de todas nuestras ataduras. Si estamos atentos y con el corazón abierto, la Palabra de Dios tocará nuestro corazón logrando que le hagamos caso al Señor y que demos un nuevo comienzo a nuestra vida.

El papa Francisco nos da algunas pautas para levantar la mirada hacia el Señor, quien ya viene a nosotros: "En Adviento, no vivimos solamente la espera navideña, también estamos invitados a despertar la espera del glorioso regreso de Cristo. Durante estas cuatro semanas, estamos llamados a despojarnos de una forma de vida resinada y rutinaria y a salir alimentados de esperanza y sueños para un futuro mejor. Estar despiertos y orar: he aquí como vivir este tiempo desde hoy hasta la Navidad. Rezar, esperar a Jesús, abrirse a los demás, estar despiertos, no encerrados en nosotros mismos. Pero, si pensamos en la Navidad en un clima de consumismo, de ver, que puedo comprar, Jesús pasará y no lo encontraremos. Nosotros esperamos a Jesús y queremos esperarle en oración vigilante" (12-2-2018).

INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Cualquier éxito humano requiere vigilancia. Las oportunidades y los momentos poderosos de encuentro se pueden perder fácilmente cuando no estamos atentos. Hoy en día es demasiado fácil vivir una vida distraída y preocupada. Hay tantas cosas que compiten por nuestra atención que puede ser difícil ser selectivo y realmente enfocarse. Atrapados en este torbellino de ajetreo y ansiedad, nos cansamos y casi caminamos dormidos por la vida. El Adviento es un momento para enfocarse selectivamente. Estas hermosas cuatro semanas son un tiempo para mirar hacia atrás y hacia adelante y estar atentos al viaje humano y la revelación de Dios. Desde el principio de los tiempos, Dios ha estado buscando nuestra atención. Él constantemente nos recuerda la justicia que desea traer y la promesa de su amor incondicional y duradero. Entender y crecer en estas verdades requiere estar alerta para que podamos fortalecernos en nuestra fe y estar preparados para lo que venga.

¡Recomiende a alguien para ser entrevistado!

Siempre andamos buscando personas que quieran dar testimonio y compartir con nosotros cómo han experimentado la presencia de Dios en sus vidas: en un desafío que lograron superar, en la respuesta a una oración, en un momento de conversión, en cómo han podido tener persistencia en la fe, y en cómo respondieron al llamado de Dios. Comuníquese con Tina Gregory al 925-667-4051.
