THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace,
and the God of love and peace
will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:11

Most Holy Trinity Sunday

First Reading

The LORD, merciful and gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness (Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9)

In this passage from Exodus we get just a glimpse of a larger and richer scene in which God grants to Moses, as the mediator for Israel, a forty-day-long mystical experience of himself so profound that it alters Moses's appearance, causing his face to shine or glow (34:29). In this scene, though prostrate on the ground in adoration, Moses, in a remarkable show of intimacy, can say to this awesome God, "If I find favor with you, O LORD, do come along in our company." God acknowledges this simple invitation to "come along," declaring in a later verse, "Behold I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been wrought in all the earth or in any nation" (Exodus 34:10; RSV:2CE).

Unlike Moses, who makes "haste to bow his head" (Exodus 34:8; RSV: 2CE), the Israelites are "stiff-necked" (v. 9), yet God elects them for what he calls a "terrible thing" (v. 10), an awesome display of his grace and mercy at Sinai and beyond. Through them, in their Messiah, Jesus Christ, he will reveal the inner secret of his eternal mystery of personal communion, of which the covenant he forms with this people is but a faint reflection. But already, in Moses, we see that covenant communion with God is transformative in the deepest sense. Not only does it make his face glow, but it also makes his life of surrender to God a magnificent beacon for the whole human race down the centuries.

Second Reading

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11-13)

In our Second Reading, from the Lectionary we get a very similar message to the passage from Exodus in our First Reading.. St. Paul, in effect, exhorts the Corinthians not to be "stiff-necked." If they will mend their ways and live in love and peace with one another, then "the God of love and peace" will be with them. In order to have God remain "in our company," we must remain true to the great commandment of the new covenant to love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves. From its foundations, one of the primary characteristics of the Church has been the love that its members show for one another.

That shocking love displayed among early Christians was one of the clearest signs that God had bestowed his special grace upon them, and it gave the Church a tremendous gravitational force, attracting new adherents at a surprising rate. If we don't see a dramatic harvest of souls in our own day, ought we not to ask ourselves whether our love for our neighbor would shock anyone enough to cause them to investigate the Christian life? If not, then what we need is more of the "love," "grace" and "fellowship" of the three Persons—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—to which St. Paul commits the Corinthians in the closing words of this passage, which also closes the entire epistle from which it is drawn.

Gospel

God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life (John 3:16-18).

"God so loved the world..." This is one of the best known phrases from the Bible. It's not at all uncommon to see "John 3:16" on placards at sporting events or even on roadside billboards. It has become emblematic of the whole Gospel of Jesus Christ because it tells us in brief about the whole of salvation history and the Father's plan for the human race. In Jesus, the Father's only Son, the Father announces not only his intent to save the world, but also his very divine identity as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In the Person of Christ, these two dimensions of the Gospel, redemption and revelation, are intimately united. By revealing who he is, God simultaneously reveals his saving love.

The God who loves us to the end—as St. John will later say in Chapter 13 in his Gospel—reveals the depth of that love first in his self-revelation to us that he is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Out of the immense fire of love that God is in himself—the eternal exchange of love between the three divine Persons—comes the saving love of Christ's Incarnation. The pierced side of our Savior on the Cross pierces our hearts to reveal the essence of Trinitarian love. The immensity of the divine love, in both its redeeming and revealing dimensions, fills us with the confidence that he comes not to condemn the world, but so that we "might not perish but have eternal life."

Grow in Discipleship

In our reading from Exodus, Moses has an incredible encounter with God. Moses didn't want an abstract knowledge of God, but wanted to know the Person of God, to see the face of God, to learn God's name. In response, God reveals his innermost name.

Why is this so important? When we know a person's name, we can enter into a relationship with them. So when Moses learns God's name, he begins to learn God's character as well.

Moses talks about God's rich, steadfast love, and those characteristics become a kind of mission statement: "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." In fact, this "mission statement" from Exodus 34 is the most quoted line of the Pentateuch. Throughout their history, the Israelites have held onto God's mercy and from that identity comes God's deeds—his mercy, his kindness, and his steadfast love.

Then in the Gospel of John, we get the famous line about God so loving the world, that he gave his only Son. This highlights two of the key actions of God: first his love, and second, his giving. Through this we learn that love is an action, not a feeling, and that love is expressed in giving.

From all of this we come to realize that God is a loving God who wants to share his goodness with us, so he gives us the Son, who infinitely gives himself back to the Father. This love and mutual self-giving is the Person of the Holy Spirit, for God is love and his deeds are love. God is one God, with Three Persons united in love, and the Holy Spirit is the manifestation of that giving love.

PRAYER:

In the reading from Exodus, we are told that the Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and fidelity. Do you think God is merciful in your life? Slow to anger? In what ways have you experienced God's kindness and fidelity? How does this description of God's character help you grow in your relationship with God?

RESOLUTION:

Consider all the ways that God has been gracious, slow to anger, and kind to you. You may want to write down these things this week so that you remember them and can see how God is intimately involved in your life.

Use your journal to write down your thoughts, reflections, and your resolutions.

Prayers & Devotion

Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity's Prayer

O my God,
Trinity whom I adore; help me to forget myself entirely that I may be established in you as still and as peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity. May nothing trouble my peace or make me leave you, O
my Unchanging One, but may each minute carry me further into the depths of your mystery. Give peace to my soul; make it your heaven,
your beloved dwelling and your resting place. May I never leave you there alone but be wholly present, my faith wholly vigilant, wholly adoring, and wholly surrendered to your creative action.

News & Announcements

Fr Van's Reminders

Please keep your belongings with you when you process to receive communion or leave valuables locked in your car. Sadly, there have been instances of theft.

Please be mindful of the Lord's Presence whenever you are in the church. Make sure to genuflect (if you are physically able) whenever you pass before the tabernacle.

Please maintain a prayerful silence in the church, before, during and after Mass.

Please dress modestly. Shoulders should be covered, hemlines to the knee, and tops with modest necklines.

Please if you are approached by pan-handlers, do not give them money. Instead, direct them to the church office or local services. The Livermore Police Department has identified most of them as part of a larger network.

Thank You for Your Offerings!

DIGGING DEEPER: Names of God

The Old Testament has numerous names of God, which reflect his character and his deeds. Here are just a few:

Jehovah-Jireh: "The Lord our provider" (Genesis 22:14)

Jehovah-Nissi: "Our banner, a banner of love and protection" (Exodus 17:15)

Jehovah-Shalom: "Our perfect peace" (Judges 6:24)

Jehovah-Tsid-Kenu: "The LORD our justice." (Jeremiah 33:16)

Jehovah-Sabaoth: "The Lord of Hosts, our Protector" (Psalm 46:7)

Jehovah-Raah: "Our Shepherd who tenderly leads us, loves us, and will keep us safe" (Psalm 23)

Jehovah Rapha: "I am the Lord your Physician" or "I am the Lord your Healer" (Exodus 15:26)

Father's Day Choir

All women and girls are invited to sing in a special choir in honor of Father's Day at the 11:00 am Mass on June 18. Please meet in the loft at 10:30 am.

Job Posting: Youth Minister

St. Michael Parish is seeking a Youth Minister responsible for providing Christian formation, Confirmation Sacramental Preparation to youth of the parish in Middle and High School (grades 6-12) and providing a parish based pastoral ministry with youth (grades 6-12) working with the Lifeteen/EDGE model. The Youth Minister successfully manages the confirmation sacramental preparation and youth ministry curriculum through the implementation of programs that support the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, supervises volunteers, recruits catechists, plans and leads meetings, schedules classes and facilities, orders materials and books, and in general, carries out program organizational details and encourages opportunities for involvement in parish life. ## Livermore Knights of Columbus Membership Drive

June 24 & 25

Our Livermore knights will hold a membership drive at St. Michael Church on June 24th and 25th. All Catholic men are invited to join. Contact Jim Shirley for information at: 925-518-1189, jshirley@lvjusd.k12.ca.us.

Our faith teaches us to “Love thy neighbor as thyself.” Knights show love for their neighbors by conducting food drives, volunteering at Special Olympics, supporting mothers who choose life for their babies, and much, much more. Our mission and our faith in God compel us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need, a call we answer every day.

Dress-a-Girl Sew-Fest Saturday, June 17

Join us at Livermore Library, 1188 S. Livermore Ave from 10 am to 3 pm where we will make simple dresses for girls in poverty-stricken countries. We are always accepting cheerful cotton fabric donations! If you can't make the Sew-Fest but would like to sew, please contact us for kits that you can sew from home. ## Procesión de Corpus Christi y Celebración de despedida del Padre Rafael

Sábado, 17 de junio a las 5:00 pm

Todos están invitados a nuestra procesión bilingüe de Corpus Christi. Se invita a los ministerios a traer pancartas para caminar detrás del Santísimo Sacramento. Aquellos que han recibido recientemente su Primera Comunión están invitados a llevar sus trajes en la procesión.

Celebraremos una Misa bilingüe (no habrá Misa en español a las 7 pm), seguida de una recepción para nuestro querido Padre Rafael en el patio. El se unirá a la comunidad de St. Anthony en Oakley el 1 de julio.

El Rev. Alfonso Borgen, OFM Conv, se unirá a San Miguel como nuestro nuevo Vicario Parroquial, a partir del 1 de agosto.

MISA DEL RECUERDO EN ST. CHARLES

Miercoles 5 de JULIO - 7:00 pm

Nos juntamos para recordar a nuestros seres queridos difuntos a las 7:00 p.m. Nuestra Misa Bilingüe nos da la oportunidad de hacer honor a nuestros amados difuntos al celebrar una misa en su nombre. Los motivamos a que traigan una foto de su ser querido en marco y puesto ante el altar durante la misa. El ritual del recuerdo nos da una oportunidad de venir hacia adelante con una rosa, encender una vela, y hablar sobre las personas que estamos recordando, si así lo desea. Rosas y velas serán dadas. Esta misa trimestral es patrocinada por el Ministerio de Apoyo de Dolor de St. Michael y St. Charles. Todos están invitados.

ENFOQUE DEL MINISTERIO

Formación y Apoyo al Clero

La diócesis apoya al clero desde su formación inicial hasta su jubilación. Una porción de los fondos de La Apelación se usa para apoyar la formación de seminaristas que se preparan para toda una vida de servicio a la comunidad de fe de la Iglesia de Oakland. Estos hombres siguen un llamado especial al servicio y necesitan de nuestras oraciones y apoyo financiero en su viaje vocacional. El costo de apoyo a estos seminaristas en sus estudios es una de las mayores partidas presupuestarias para la diócesis. Entre más hombres discernen el llamado a servir a la Iglesia de Oakland y el Área de la Bahía, estos costos seguirán creciendo.

La continua actualización, renovación y la educación de los sacerdotes que sirven a la diócesis es importante para una Iglesia vital y creciente. La diócesis, con fondos de La Apelación, ofrece programas de renovación, sabáticos y educación continua para nuestros sacerdotes.

En sus años de jubilación, nuestros sacerdotes merecen nuestro agradecimiento por una vida de servicio. Los fondos de La Apelación del Obispo proveerán ayuda suplementaria durante la jubilación y cuidado a largo plazo para nuestros sacerdotes ancianos.

El diaconado es un ministerio de servicio vital para los programas en nuestras parroquias que llegan a personas en lugares como las cárceles y hospitales de nuestra área. Los diáconos que sirven a nuestra diócesis también reciben educación continua, formación y apoyo en su ministerio.

La Santísima Trinidad

GLORIA Y ALABANZA POR SIEMPRE

Cuando Moisés subió al monte Sinaí, Dios le hizo la revelación más extraordinaria, Dios le reveló su nombre: "Señor, Señor, Dios compasivo y misericordioso" (Éxodo 34:6). En el Antiguo Testamento, estamos acostumbrados a asumir que "Señor, Dios" indica solamente a Dios Padre. Pero en la retrospectiva con la que vemos a estas lecturas, podemos ver que el título incluye a las tres personas de la Santísima Trinidad. Nunca ha habido alguna separación de las tres personas en un solo Dios, y aun cuando solo se mencione a una de las personas de la Santísima Trinidad, se entiende que las tres están presentes. Jesús enseñó muchas veces que él y el Padre son uno, y que el Espíritu Santo vendría a nosotros y nos haría recordar muchos eventos. Creemos en Dios, creador de todo lo que existe; el Hijo, redentor de la vida y dador de la vida eterna, y el Espíritu Santo, inspiración de los profetas y amante de toda la humanidad, la sabiduría sagrada, que nos inspira a comprender todas las cosas santas.

DIOS AMÓ TANTO AL MUNDO

Cuando escuchamos en el versículo constantemente citado del Evangelio de Juan 3:16 "Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo, que entregó a su Unigenito, para que todo el que cree en él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna", empezamos a ver como el lenguaje que expresa el envío del Hijo es limitado para expresar la unidad de la Santísima Trinidad. Esta limitación del lenguaje ante la presencia del misterio de la Santísima Trinidad es lo que lo hace difícil de explicar y comprender. Entonces, ¿cómo podemos responder cuando vemos una referencia a "Dios"? Podemos esforzarnos en recordar que Dios son tres personas, no una sola como nosotros, y un solo ser. Nuestra mejor respuesta es alabar a la Santísima Trinidad. "Gloria al Padre y al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo; a Dios quien fue, quien es y quien será." Y nosotros podemos bendecirnos uno al otro cuando rezamos con san Pablo "La gracia del Señor Jesucristo, el amor de Dios y la comunión del Espíritu Santo estén siempre con todos ustedes" (2 corintios 13:13).

¡Importante!

No habrá ninguna misa los miércoles por la noche durante el mes de julio.

El Rev. Alfonso Borgen, OFM Conv, será el nuevo Vicario Parroquial de la Parroquia San Miguel, Livermore Efectivo 1de Agosto del 2017
