The Epiphany of the Lord

Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,
“Where is the newborn king of the Jews?”

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

Matthew 2:1-2

These Three Kings

Jesus came in the most unexpected ways; the King of Kings was born in a manger as a baby. His coming was not shouted from the rooftops, nor did he come as a great warrior, like so many of the Jewish people expected. Since Jesus's birth was concealed from most of the world, Italian crèches highlight this aspect of the Nativity. Unlike American Nativity scenes, they are extremely busy and showcase an entire village; Jesus, Mary, and Joseph are not the prominent or central figures. The Italian crèche allows us to really understand how Jesus came. He was hidden. His coming was humble, and it took a journey of faith and trust to find him.

The magi in today's Gospel had the wisdom and openness to see the light of the star and follow it. They were on watch, just as we were during Advent, and had a heart willing to follow the light that they saw. They set aside the tasks of daily life in order to worship the Messiah. Are we willing to do the same in our own lives? Do we seek Christ, and when we find him, do we worship him and pay him homage?

First Reading Reflection

Isaiah 60:1–6

The Church understands this text from Isaiah as pointing prophetically to the Adoration of the Magi, which we celebrate on this feast of Epiphany, meaning "manifestation." "Your light has come," Isaiah says, "the glory of the Lord shines upon you." Indeed, light is a prominent theme in the Liturgy during this dark and cold time of the year. Isaiah continues, saying, "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." Let's delve into this a little further.

On this solemn feast, it is precisely kings who walk by God's shining radiance. The light of course comes from the star of Bethlehem. But what—or who—is the star? Christ is not only the babe born at Bethlehem, but the Light of the World. In Revelation 22:16, St. John records Our Lord closing the revelation with these words: "I, Jesus, sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the root and offspring of David, the bright morning star." Christ is both the babe lying below the star, and also the star that shines above. The light of the star that guides the Wise Men symbolizes the light that Christ casts by his coming into the dark of this world.

Second Reading Reflection

Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6

In St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians, we see an expression of the fulfillment of the prophecy which the Magi represent. The specific role that the Gentiles (non-Jews) are to play is revealed in the living prophecy of the Wise Men. The Magi from the East come to pay homage not merely to the King of the Jews but to the universal King of the Nations—the King of Kings. That Christ is the King of all mankind is not finally made clear, however, until after the birth of the infant Church and the special revelations given to Sts. Peter and Paul that direct them to extend the Church to the Gentiles. The early Church probably reflected on the Jewish Scriptures in the light of these new revelations and realized that God's promise to Israel had been a universal promise from the beginning.

The first covenants were, after all, universal. The covenants with Adam at creation and with Noah after the flood were intended to extend to the whole of the human family—all the descendants of those two covenant mediators. It is not until Abraham that God chooses one people to mediate his covenantal love to the rest of mankind. At every step of salvation history, however, God's overtures to his creatures are frustrated by human sin. So, finally, he sends his only Son who can act as the perfect Mediator between God and man because he is both God and man.

Gospel Reading Reflection

Matthew 2:1–12

The Wise Men left their homes in the East in search of the Messiah, which means "anointed one" in Hebrew. Since the kings of Israel were anointed with oil like David (1 Samuel 16), it was assumed that the Messiah would be a great king. David was called God's anointed precisely because he was Israel's king. The Wise Men followed a star, from which they inferred that the great

King of Israel had been born. The next obvious question is, how did they know from the appearance of a star that the Messiah of Israel had been born?

The answer may be found in the story of Balaam from the Book of Numbers. The similarities between the two stories are striking. For example, Balaam happens to be a Magi from the East. The wicked King of Moab hired Balaam to use his magic to curse Israel. But every time Balaam attempted to curse Israel, he uttered a blessing instead. The Spirit of God came upon Balaam and, in blessing Israel, he prophesied that one day a star would come out of Israel signifying the coming of a great king as symbolized by a scepter. Many believe that the prophecy of Balaam was kept by his descendants—fellow Magi—and, eventually, on to the three who visited Jesus.

Discussion

As we reflect on the Magi's journey of faith to meet Christ, let us consider how we can follow the light of Christ in our own life. Please take a few minutes and listen to Jim Beckman's insight into today's Gospel by playing the Opening the Word video on FORMED.org.

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul tells the Ephesians that the mystery of salvation is being revealed to them in a way unlike ever before. Salvation had been proclaimed for ages to the Jewish people, but it was never known how salvation would come to them. When have you been surprised by the way something worked out? Is it hard to trust that everything will "work out" in the end? Do you remain hopeful and place your trust in the Lord when situations arise that you don't have control over?

In today's Gospel, we hear of the journey of the Magi to meet the Christ Child. Their journey is one of great faith—though they are not Jewish, they have studied enough to recognize the star that leads them to the coming of the Savior as a newborn boy. As we can imagine, this is probably not what they expected to see. However, the wise Magi were able to recognize the King of Kings in a tiny infant. Finally, they disobey a powerful ruler and change their route home because of a dream.

What provoked the Magi to begin this journey in the first place? Where in your life do you need to trust God as the Magi did?

DIGGING DEEPER: More on the Gifts

Allegorically, the gifts of the magi signify the mystery of Christ incarnate. Gold, a symbol of royalty, represents the kingship of Jesus. Frankincense, used in the worship of God, points to his divinity. Myrrh, a burial ointment, signifies the humanity of Christ, especially in his Passion and Death. Morally, the treasures signify the gifts we present to Christ in our daily lives. Gold is Christ's wisdom, which shines in us, frankincense is the prayer and adoration we give him, and myrrh is our daily self-sacrifices (Ignatius Catholic Study Bible, 9).

The readings today tell us of the grace we have received in having the opportunity to meet Christ. We, like the Magi, have the chance to meet him face-to-face. We can find him in every Tabernacle and have the privilege to bow down before him and offer him our hearts. Let's take some time to better understand the story of the Magi and how we can follow their example of faith and adoration of Our Lord.

Prayer Meditation

When the Magi arrived at the place where Jesus was born, they immediately recognized him as their Savior, “[falling] down and [worshipping] him” (Matthew 2:11). They saw this innocent child, their Lord, and offered him their best gifts—gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

What gifts do you have to offer to Christ? Do you offer to him from your excess or do you offer him all that you are? As you heard Jim Beckman explain in the Opening the Word video on FORMED.org, the best you can give to Jesus is your very self—your heart. Have you offered it to him? What is holding you back from giving the infant Jesus your heart today?

Resolution

The story of the Magi’s journey is truly remarkable. They are an example of a profound humility and trust in God. What area, of the four Jim spoke of, do you need to focus on this week? To refresh your memory, the first way we can model the example of the Magi is to do our part in studying and learning the Faith. The second is by practicing humility and being open to what God wants to show us, especially when it isn’t part of our own plan. The third is to detach from the busyness of our daily lives and follow Christ. And finally, offer your heart to Christ. Don’t hold back from giving him your best. He longs for you, just as you are. Make a commitment to choose one of the four attributes of the Wise Men to live out this week.

News & Announcements

The Parish Directories are Here!

Distribution of St. Michael Centennial Directories will be after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 am Masses and before the 12:30 pm Mass in the breezeway near the Chapel on Jan 14 and 21.

Watch for Collection Reports

Due to the holiday off-hours, please watch for the collection reports for the last few weeks in next week's bulletin. Thank you!

Pancake Breakfast After Mass Next Sunday, January 14

Stop by the newly remodeled hall next week (Sunday, January 14) from 7:30 am – 1:00 pm for a Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast. All proceeds will go to the students' annual Science Camp which is a highlight of the academic year. Enjoy a great meal served by the students and please make a generous contribution. Also note the longer run time that allows 11 am mass attendees to eat after mass.

I wish to thank all of our support staff who were involved in preparing the St. Michael Parish Christmas Liturgies. It takes a lot of planning, months before the great celebration of Christmas. We are so blessed with talented and gifted lay ministers who work behind the scenes to bring everything together. Liturgical planners, music, decorators, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, office staff, communication team, welcome ministry, ushers & greeters, maintenance, custodial, all come together to make St. Michael Parish so special. We owe them our appreciation and thanks.

Happy New Year from Your Clergy and Staff!

We welcomed many visitors over these holidays and welcomed new families who came to know St. Michael Parish as home. I wish to invite you to add a New Year's resolution to your list. Keep your faith growing by attending the Alpha dinner on January 9th or subscribing to FORMED.org. See this bulletin or visit StMichaelLivermore.com for information. We all need to keep our faith growing!

Now that the renovated Hall is open thanks to the generosity of the Paul Marcotte family. Golden Friends will have returned to having the monthly Mass and lunch. This is great time to reach out and extend an invitation to our seniors who may not have participated in the past. This is another opportunity to welcome home those seniors who have been away.

We thank you, our parish family, for your Christmas and continued Sunday financial support. This is our parish and all of us together make St. Michael Parish what it is today. Building on the legacy that others have given us, we are called to make our contributions of prayer, evangelization, financial support.

Finally, I wish to thank those who made my 35th Anniversary of Ordination Celebration, Mass & Reception such an exciting event. Again, so many worked behind the scenes. Liturgical Ministries, Welcoming Committee, the Knights of Columbus and all who gave of their time and talent. I gratefully appreciate everything you did for me. We have such a wonderful parish. Pray for our parish and keep Father Van in our prayers. God bless you.

Works of Art Commemorating Apparitions of the Virgin Mary

Mon, Jan 22, 7:00-8:30 pm
St Joan of Arc Church

There are endless examples of the Blessed Virgin Mary in painting, sculpture, and other forms. But those made especially for places where she has appeared to the faithful are a special category that attempt to capture what the original "seers" experienced at specific times and places.

This slide lecture will look at evidence from Fatima, Portugal, Lourdes, France, and Guadalupe, Mexico. It will be led by Barbara Mitchell, a PhD art historian and member of St. Michael Parish in Livermore. Dr. Mitchell is also a docent at the Cathedral of Christ the Light in Oakland. All are welcome.

St. Michael Community,

I hope all of you had a wonderful Christmas and New Year's. Thank you to our clergy, staff, ministries and all of our wonderful volunteers for your continued love and dedication to our St Michael community. I continue to appreciate the outpouring of support and prayers as our dedicated staff works hard to serve and meet the needs of our growing community. I want to also thank our Pastoral Council, Facilities Committee and Finance Council who provide countless hours to serve and advise.

Through God's blessings and through all of your efforts, we had some great accomplishments in 2017. A few highlights from 2017 include the following:

- The completion of our Hall remodel through the very generous

- donation from Paul Marcotte and his family.
- Exterior painting of our beautiful Church and our St. Michael School buildings.
- Revamp of our key system for our school and rectory buildings to provide improved security for our facilities.
- A new ministry room with the latest technology to open in a few weeks in our Education Center building.

Since I started a year ago, I've grown to deeply love this truly wonderful community and feel extremely blessed to minister and serve with all of you. We still have much to do as we prepare to celebrate the Centennial Anniversary of our Church building and continue to make facility improvements and fixes. Through your continued prayers, volunteerism and financial support, together we will do great things in 2018.

May God continue to bless you and your family. God bless.

La Misa en latin regresa a San Miguel en enero

La Misa tradicional en latin volverá a San Miguel, en el segundo domingo de cada mes, a las 8:00 AM., desde enero a junio. Esto es parte de los festejos del 100 aniversario de nuestra iglesia, y una oportunidad para celebrar la misa de la misma manera que las personas lo hicieron en esta Iglesia de San Miguel durante años. Es también una oportunidad, para que nuestras diversas culturas étnicas se unan en adoración.

Tendremos misales disponibles con traducción del latin al español, para que podamos seguir las oraciones en latin.

LA PROMESA DE DIOS A TODOS

Hoy Isaías le recuerda al pueblo de Dios que recuperará su tierra, que se alegrará al ver que las personas regresan del cautiverio del exilio y que será una luz para todos los pueblos. En otras palabras, por medio del pueblo de Israel, el Salvador llegará a todos los pueblos que buscan a Dios con un corazón sincero. Esto traerá la alegría y el resplandor de la gloria de Dios a todo el mundo y a todos los pueblos. Gracias a la fidelidad del pueblo de Dios y, gracias a la fidelidad de Dios con ellos, todos serán sus hijos y se alegrarán con el cumplimiento de su promesa a Israel.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura -- ¡Levántate y brilla, Jerusalén! La gloria del Señor amanece sobre ti (Isaías 60:1-6).

Salmo -- Se postrarán ante ti, Señor, todos los pueblos de la tierra (Salmo 72 [71]).

Segunda lectura -- El misterio de que los gentiles son coherederos, socios en la promesa en Jesucristo, se ha dado a conocer a los hombres (Efesios 3:2-3a, 5-6).

Evangelio -- Magos del oriente llegaron, diciendo: "¿Dónde está el rey de los judíos que ha nacido?" (Mateo 2:1-12).
