You Did It to Me

The end of time both scares and fascinates us, so it's little wonder that movies about the end of the world are a Hollywood staple. While many of them are quite creative, none talk about what is actually going to happen, as described in today's Gospel.

When the world ends, we are told that God is going to focus on one thing: How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Nothing else will matter. Just how we treated who Jesus called "the least" among us.

The world at large has the final judgment wrong, but so do many Christians. Sometimes we tend to think that God will ask us how much we prayed, how much we read about the faith, how often we had fellowship and community with others, how often we received the sacraments. All of those things are important—that's true—but the bottom line for God is going to be how we treated others because, as Jesus says, the way we treat others is ultimately the way we treat him.

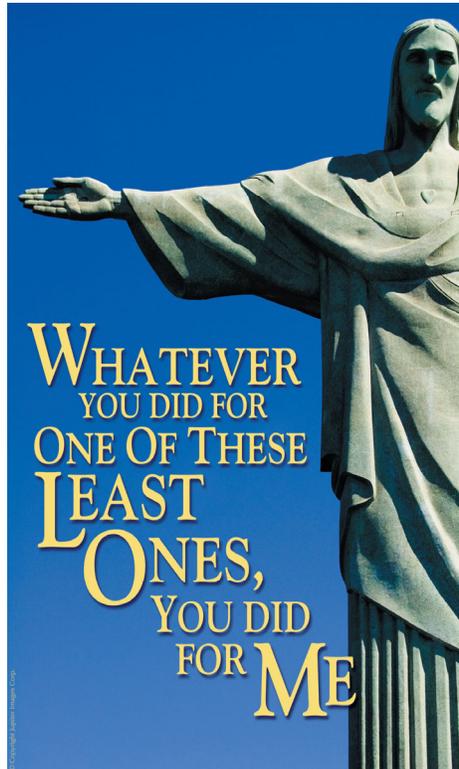

As we reach the end of the Church year, we are reminded of the great responsibility God has entrusted to us to care for the people in our lives...until the end of our lives, for the extent that we serve others is the extent that we serve Christ, the King.

First Reading

Ezekiel 34:11–12, 15–17

This passage is filled with words of comfort. God himself promises to be Shepherd to his sheep. Both shepherds and sheep come in for some sobering prophetic affliction in the verses before and after our reading. "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who have been pasturing themselves," we read in verse 2. In verse 18 the prophet says to the sheep, "Was it not enough for you to graze on the best pasture, that you had to trample the rest of your pastures with your feet?" As is often the case with the prophets, Ezekiel is an equal opportunity afflictor.

We in the Church read both the comfort passages and the affliction passages in the prophets as addressed to ourselves. Jesus' solemn warning to beware when others speak well of us has been taken seriously by the Church as she expresses herself in her liturgy. We're always warning ourselves not to get too comfortable. The comfort we draw from the image of God coming to shepherd us himself in the first verses of this reading is tempered by the last ones in which the Lord warns, "The sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats."

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:20–26, 28

This passage can help us shake off our worldly, temporal thinking. We so often think of time as the enemy of life. We moderns struggle fiercely to fend off the ravages of time in the illusion that we can hold death at bay. St. Paul reminds us that time isn't the enemy of life. In fact, time is the environment of death, the atmosphere that death breathes. When time ends, death will end with it, having no place to live and nothing left to breathe.

It can be a wonderful exercise to try to live as though we believed what Paul says. How differently we treat others when we look at them as creatures made to live in the eternity of God, as deathless persons. Strictly speaking, we're not eternal, since we have had a beginning in time. Only God is eternal. None that we know or have known will die. Some will rise to punishment, others to reward. Those in the latter category will be those who have struggled to subject themselves to Christ. Having been subjected to Christ, they'll be part of the whole gift of the harvest of time, which he will offer to the Father in his eternity. What a glorious end we have and, in fact, no end at all!

Gospel Reading Matthew 25:31–46

One of the most usual facets of Christianity is its identification with the poor. Other faiths have counseled compassion toward the poor, but Christianity identifies with the poor in a way that the others don't. The source of that identification is in our Gospel passage this week. Jesus invites us to identify with the poor by identifying himself with them. One of the salient features of this identification with the poor is that those who seek Christ among the poor find it too little to see him in the poor; they invariably long to become poor. The whole impetus behind Franciscan minority is this desire, not only to serve the poor as one of them, but to be identifiable as another Christ by virtue of becoming one of "the least," about whom Jesus speaks in this passage.

Buddhism scorns wealth as an accommodation to desire, based on illusion. Hinduism sees poverty as the result of bad karma or as an aid to righting karma. Only in Christianity does poverty take on a human face, indeed, a divine face.

Discussion

This is the last Sunday of the Church year, and our readings today appropriately focus on the Final Judgment. Let's listen to what Dr. Sri has to tell us about that event in the short Opening the Word video found at FORMED.org.

What is Jesus going to ask us when we appear before him at the Final Judgment?

What, according to Dr Sri, is the culture of death based on?

How does modern individualism lead us to neglect and hurt other people?

DIGGING DEEPER: Judgment Day

"Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. The parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul—a destiny which can be different for some and for others.

"Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven—through a purification or immediately, —or immediate and everlasting damnation." (CCC 1021-1022)

Prayers & Devotion

Today's Gospel is one of the most challenging of the entire Bible because the answers to the questions Jesus asks will determine our eternal destiny.

Prayer

Picture yourself standing before the throne of God. Jesus asks you the following questions that are based on today's Gospel readings. As you hear them, answer them honestly in your heart.

Did you give me food when I was hungry? Did you give me drink when I was thirsty? When I was a stranger, did you welcome me? When I was naked, did you clothe me? When I was sick, did you care for me? Did you visit me when I was imprisoned? What did you do for the least of those in your life?

Resolution

As we approach the beginning of a new church year, make a resolution to live out the Church commands of Matthew 25 to the best of your ability next year. Choose one of the commands to focus on particularly in the next month.

Parish Prayer Requests:

For all those who do not have nutritious food.
For those who do not have safe drinking water.
For those who are outcast.
For those who do not have proper clothing.
For those who are sick in body, mind and in spirit.
For those who are physically imprisoned and those imprisoned by addiction and sin.

Please send your prayer requests to

A New Ministry to Help Put the Pieces Together after a Loss

Join us in a gentle, safe environment to share your feelings of any kind of loss: health and aging, friendships and family, relocations and career, addictions and special needs... any kind of loss. Puzzles is a place to help put the pieces together and feel whole again in Christ.

Join us Wednesday, January 10 in the new upstairs Conference Room in the Ed Center at 6:00 pm. Contact Tommie Hogan at 925-292-1653 or tommie1943@gmail.com

Altar Society Needs Help

Can you help one Saturday, every 6-7 weeks doing some light “housekeeping” in the church? Duties take about 1- 1/2 hours. Jobs include: changing the holy water light dusting, cleaning wax off candles, and tidying up the pews.

This is probably one of the easiest—and infrequent! - ways you can serve our parish that also makes a huge difference. Who wants to sit in the pews looking at cobwebs and dust?

Yes, we will train you, so that you know exactly what to do. And you won't be working by yourself! Contact Vicki Borzileri at 925 487 2073 or vborzileri@comcast.net

LLNL's HOME Campaign Last Day is Dec 1

If you work at LLNL, please consider participating in the HOME campaign payroll deduction giving program. LLNL will match your regular offering!

You can choose St Michael Parish AND St Vincent de Paul, St Michael's Conference.

The Hall Needs New Tables and Chairs

Over the past month, the Facilities Committee has talked about getting new chairs and tables for our newly remodeled Hall. New chairs and tables would cost around $7,500 - $12,000.

Would you like to donate a year-end tax-deductible gift for new chairs and tables? Please send me an email at EricHom@StMichaelLivermore.com.

Thank you in advance for your continued support and generosity.

Christmas Ushers and Crossing Guards

On Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, our church is joyfully overflowing with people! We need your help.

Please think about which Mass you will attend, and sign up to serve by calling Dave and Natascha Parks at 925-371-2276 or talk to one of the ushers at Mass!

Join Christmas Choir!

If you've been wanting to join a choir but were waiting for the right moment, NOW is the time! We are inviting everyone to join one of our choirs and start learning music for our upcoming Christmas celebrations.

Please contact JaNet Hancock, Director of Music, at music@StMichaelLivermore.com or 925-292-5071 for more information.

Nicholas was still a young child when he discovered a very special secret that changed his life forever. It was the gift of giving, by which he brought happiness to many people. Nevertheless, in sharing this gift, Nicholas had to face many dangers. Here is the fascinating story of the boy whose love and care for others make him one of the most popular figures of all times. Today, more than sixteen centuries later, the entire world celebrates the kindness and generosity of the man we call Santa Claus.

Based on historical facts and traditions, Nicholas: The Boy Who Became Santa, is the beautifully animated film worth watching all year long.

Y EL MISTERIO DEL VERBO ENCARNADO

XAVIER FERNANDEZ

Guadalupe y el Misterio del Verbo Encarnado

Xavier Fernandez

La aparición en el Tepeyac trajo el Hijo de Dios al Nuevo Mundo como lo trajo a la cueva de Belén hace dos mil años. Los sacrificios de las pirámides aztecas han sido reemplazados por el sacrificio eterno del Cordero en los altares católicos. Cada señal milagrosa tiene un significado y el de Guadalupe es recordar que en la eucaristía el verbo encarnado que entró en el cuerpo de María entra de nuevo en cada uno de nosotros. En esta presentación el código de Guadalupe es revelado desde una perspectiva asombrosa, la relación entre María, el Apocalipsis, y la sagrada eucaristía.

Inmaculada Concepción: Día de obligación

Viernes, 8 de diciembre

Celebramos la concepción de la Santísima Virgen María, quien fue concebida por medios biológicos normales en el vientre de su madre, Santa Ana, pero Dios actuó sobre su alma, manteniéndola "inmaculada" y libre del pecado original.

Los católicos honran su compromiso y obediencia a Jesús y a su iglesia al asistir a la Misa en los Días Santos. Las Misas en San Miguel serán las siguientes:

Misa de Vigilia el jueves, 7 de diciembre a las 6:00 p.m. y 7:30 p.m. (español)
Viernes, 8 de diciembre a las 8:30 a.m., 12:15 p.m., 6:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m. Español

Si va estar fuera del área, visite MassTimes.org para encontrar una parroquia cerca suyo.

La Misa en latín regresa a San Miguel en enero

La Misa tradicional en latín volverá a San Miguel, en el segundo domingo de cada mes, a las 8:00 AM., desde enero a junio. Esto es parte de los festejos del 100 aniversario de nuestra iglesia, y una oportunidad para celebrar la misa de la misma manera que las personas lo hicieron en esta Iglesia de San Miguel durante años. Es también una oportunidad, para que nuestras diversas culturas étnicas se unan en adoración. Tendremos misales disponibles con traducción del latín al español, para que podamos seguir las oraciones en latín.
