Sunday Readings

God of the Living

by Opening the Word

First Reading

The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever (2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14).

There's certainly not a hint of complacency in 2 Maccabees. The oft-noted influence of persecution may account for some of the fierce resistance to idolatry that this Jewish woman and her seven sons show to the decrees of Antiochus IV Epiphanes, the Hellenic king. During his reign, the Temple in Jerusalem was turned into a temple to Zeus and pigs were sacrificed on its altars. Ritual prostitution was also conducted in the courts of the Temple of God. The insult to Jewish sensibilities was far more than what would be ordinary to a foreign occupation. Antiochus had profaned the holiest spot in the world!

In the several centuries before the coming of Christ, idolatry, polygamy, and other violations of God's plan for Israel had become very rare in what seems to have been a real growth in the collective spiritual maturity of the Jewish people. That could've been a response to the loss of national sovereignty, but many centuries of meditating on God's Word and deeds may have matured God's people to the point that some were willing to die for the one who would eventually come and die for them.

Second Reading

May the Lord encourage and strengthen your hearts (2 Thessalonianians 2:16 -- 3:5).

St. Paul speaks of an "everlasting encouragement and good hope" granted to the Thessalonians by God; confident that these will "strengthen them in every good deed and word." And indeed, the infant Church will, before very long, be tested in many places in just the same way as the Jews were in the time of the Maccabees.

In every age there are "perverse and wicked people" who oppose God's work and the people who do it. To carry on that work, constancy in faith and confident hope are essential. Without the belief that God will strengthen and guard us "from the evil one," it would be impossible to persevere in the Christian apostolate. St. Paul's short exhortation here can be just the thing to revive us; even when it's only the little pressures of our daily walk in faith that oppress us.

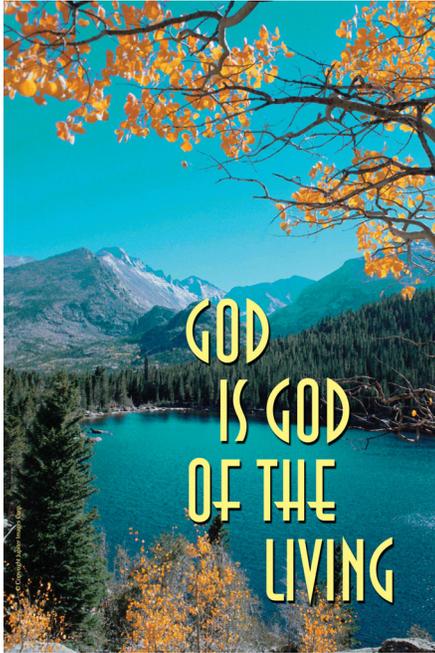

Gospel

Those who are deemed worthy of the coming age can no longer die (Luke 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]).

The Sadducees were a party of uncertain origin. Although they had clear religious affiliations, they might best be described as cultural Jews. They were disinterested in devotional Judaism but wanted to maintain their social status as leaders in the Jewish community. They were extreme religious conservatives in the sense that they denied the canonical character of everything in the Hebrew Scriptures except the first five books called the Torah or Pentateuch.

Although Jesus' teaching would've been far from the materialist doctrine of the Sadducees, he meets their criteria for valid argument by only referring to the Mosaic text in proving the immortality of the soul. Jesus overcomes what the Sadducees would've thought of as an unanswerable objection to the belief in the afterlife. The fallacy in the Sadducees' position is that life after death must be entirely different from life here. One of the aims of marriage is the propagation of the species. But, if there's no more death, there would be no further need for propagation either. Extinction is no longer a possibility in an eternal life and so the marital relationship would be drastically altered.

and Meditation

Meditation

In today's readings, we reflect on the fact that God is the God of the living, and therefore, we can have a special connection with the saints who are spiritually alive with God in heaven. Who are some of your favorite saints?

The Church is not just those of us who are living now here on earth, but all those believers who have gone before us and are now in heaven, the Communion of Saints. These saints, both those with a capital "S" who are officially recognized by the Church and those with a small "s" like when we sing "When the saints go marching in," are part of this greater Communion of Saints.

How does the idea that there are "fellow pilgrims" in heaven interceding with the Father on your behalf make living a holy life easier? How can the realization that the Father listens to the pleas of the saints enable you to have greater trust that you do not have to "do it alone," but have a whole group of "cheerleaders" to assist?

Who are some of your favorite saints? Discuss with a friend why you are drawn to a particular saint. Take some time this week to research a saint that you do not know much about.

Watch the accompanying 6-minute Opening the Word video free at Formed.org. Notice what the Communion of Saints is and what it means when we say we are "praying to a saint."

Reflection by Opening the Word and reprinted with the permission of Augustine Institute. The accompanying video lecture is available free at Formed.org.

Mass at 8:30 am Moved to Convent Chapel

November 14 and 15

Our new sound system will be installed in the church on Nov 14-28. On Monday, Nov 14 and Tuesday, Nov 15, Mass will be in the Convent Chapel. It will be a very cozy liturgy!

Alternatively, you are welcome to celebrate Mass at 7:00 am in the church or at 12:10 pm at St Elizabeth Seton, 4001 Stoneridge Dr, Pleasanton.

Can Each Person in Your Family Make an Offering of $10 per Week?

Our goal is for each person to offer at least $10 each week to cover the operation cost of St Michael Parish. We need $22,000 each week to pay our bills. The biggest cost is the electricity bill and basic office expenses. On average, we are short $1,000 every week, and we may have to reduce the availability of the church, convent, hall and chapel. Can you help?

For those who are making regular donations, thank you! If you would like to set up regular offerings, please visit the church office or FaithDirect.net

Plenary Indulgence for the Souls in Purgatory

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted each and every day from November 1 to November 8, who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed.

This is a fantastic opportunity to help the Church Suffering!

Requirements:

- Receive Sacramental confession
- Receive Eucharistic
- Pray for the pope's intentions (Our Father and Hail Mary, or other appropriate prayer, is sufficient),
- Have no attachment to sin (even venial) – i.e., it is sufficient that the Christian makes an act of the will to love God and despise sin.

An indulgence is defined as "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due for sins already forgiven as far as their guilt is concerned." The first thing to note is that forgiveness of a sin is separate from punishment for the sin. Through sacramental confession we obtain forgiveness, but we aren't let off the hook as far as punishment goes.

There are two kinds of indulgences: partial and plenary. A partial indulgence removes part of the temporal punishment due for forgiven sins. A plenary indulgence removes all of it. This temporal punishment may come either in this life, in the form of various sufferings, or in the next life, in purgatory. What we don't get rid of here, we suffer there. Learn more by looking up the Enchiridion of Indulgences. "Enchiridion" means "handbook," and the Enchiridion of Indulgences is the Church's official handbook on what acts and prayers carry indulgences and what indulgences actually are.

Challenge of the Week

Communion with the Saints

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus proclaims that the Lord is "not God of the dead, but of the living" (Luke 20:38). This may seem obvious to us now, but Jesus's words affirmed what we as Catholics believe about the Communion with the Saints. To be physically dead is not the same as being dead and annihilated.

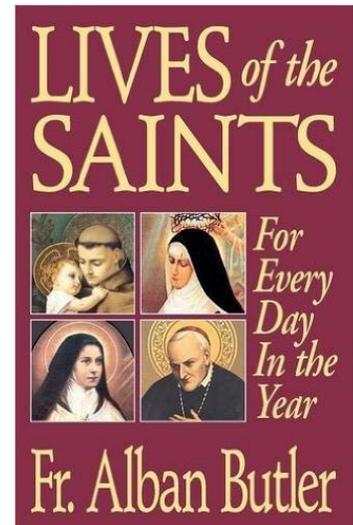

To be in God is to be alive forevermore.

"Communion with the saints: 'It is not merely by the title of example that we cherish the memory of those in heaven; we seek, rather, that by this devotion to the exercise of fraternal charity the union of the whole Church in the Spirit may be strengthened. Exactly as Christian communion among our fellow pilgrims brings us closer to Christ, so our communion with the saints joins us to Christ, from whom as from its fountain and head issues all grace, and the life of the People of God itself (LG 50; cf. Eph 4:1-6).'" —CCC 957

Discover a Saint

During the month of November, it is especially fitting to get to know a new Saint. Take some time to discover a new patron who will advocate for you!

Visit saintsnamegenerator.com to choose a saint at random for a cause or time period, or simply to get to know new saints. Visit www.catholic.org/saints to browse saints by name, by feast day or by patronage. Pick up a copy of Lives of the Saints for Every Day in the Year by Fr. Alban Butler.

Sign Up for a Hour in Eucharistic Adoration

The Perpetual Adoration Chapel is open 24/7 to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. Are you being called to sign up for a regular hour each week? The times most in need are:

Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:00 am

Thursdays at 10:00 am, 11:00 am and 12:00 pm

Thursdays at 7:00 pm
Saturdays and Sundays from 10:00 am through 5:00 pm

Email Adoration@StMichaelLivermore.com with your name, phone number, day and hour you would like to pray.

Alternatively, you may complete a paper registration form in the chapel and deposit it in the near by envelope.

Thank you for your devotion!

Puede ofrecer $10 por semana?

Nuestro objetivo es que cada persona ofrezca al menos $ 10 cada semana para cubrir el costo de operación de la Parroquia de San Miguel. Necesitamos $ 22,000 cada semana para pagar nuestras cuentas. El mayor costo es la factura de la luz y los gastos básicos de la oficina. En promedio, tenemos una escasez de $1,000 semanales, y es posible que tenga que reducir la disponibilidad de la iglesia, convento, salón y capilla. ¿Puede usted ayudar?

Para aquellos que están haciendo donaciones regulares, gracias! Si desea configurar las ofertas regulares, por favor visite la oficina de la iglesia o FaithDirect.net
