CELEBRATE THE SACRAMENTS, GROW DISCIPLES, BRING CHRIST TO PEOPLE

CELEBRA LOS SACRAMENTOS, HAS DISCÍPULOS, LLEVA A CRISTO A LAS PERSONAS

Easter SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-7

Domingo DE PASCUA

Contempló los lienzos puestos en el suelo y el sudario, que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús, puesto no con los lienzos en el suelo, sino doblado en sitio aparte. - Jn 20, 6B-7

This is the day the Lord has made, LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD!

Dear St Michael Family,

First, I would like to congratulate those who have received Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion at our Easter Vigil Mass: Matthew, Jackie, Edwyn, Adair, Keoki, Gianna, Jessi and Mayela. Welcome to God's family! Thank you also to their sponsors, catechists and the RCIA and RCIC teams for journeying with them, inspiring them to follow Jesus and to live as missionary disciples.

The Grace of Easter is so important for us Christians! "And if Christ has not been raised, then empty [too] is our preaching; empty, too, your faith." (1Cor 15:14). Without the Resurrection, the word "Church" would make no sense; no Easter means no Church. The source of life in our Church flows from Easter Sunday, when we remember, celebrate and live Jesus' victory over sin and death. Because of the disciples' Easter encounter with Resurrected Jesus, they were motivated to go out throughout the world to share this incredibly Good News. It was their hearts that were on fire that gave them the courage to proclaim who Jesus is and tell His message of mercy, hope and salvation. It was the beginning of the Church.

Thus, we are reminded this Easter Sunday to be "Easter People": people of hope, of joy and of faith, motivated to tell people about Christ. We are reminded to be faithful to His desire for each one of us to be light and salt for the earth utilizing our God-given gifts, talents and resources (Matthew 5:13-16).

As we continue with the Easter Season, we will celebrate Divine Mercy

Sunday next week. Jesus told St. Faustina Kowalska that the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide opened on Divine Mercy Sunday. Total forgiveness of all sins and punishment is available to any soul who has recently gone to Confession and who receives Him in Holy Communion on that day. In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and, during the ceremony, he declared:

"It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called "Divine Mercy Sunday".

So, let us go out with joy and hope this Easter Season! And may God bless you and your families.

Fr Carl.

This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

¡Este es el día que hizo el Señor, REGOCIJÉMONOS Y ESTEMOS ALEGRES!

Primero, quisiera felicitar a los que han recibido el Bautismo, la Confirmación y la Primera Comunión en nuestra Misa de la Vigilia Pascual: Mali Muniz, Anthony Pinzon, Orlando Alvarez, Jules Rosa, Edwin Gómez Aguilar, Carolyn Tran, Anna Tran y Holly Wilkins. ¡Bienvenidos a la familia de Dios! Gracias también a sus patrocinadores, catequistas y equipos de RICA y RCIC por viajar con ellos, inspirándolos a seguir a Jesús y vivir como discípulos misioneros.

¡La Gracia de la Pascua es tan importante para nosotros los cristianos! "Y si Cristo no ha resucitado, entonces [también] el vacío es nuestra predicación; También vacía, tu fe." (1Cor 15:14). Sin la Resurrección, la palabra "Iglesia" no tendría sentido; no Pascua significa ninguna iglesia. La fuente de vida en nuestra Iglesia fluye desde el domingo de Pascua, cuando recordamos, celebramos y vivimos la victoria de Jesús sobre el pecado y la muerte. Debido al encuentro pascual de los discípulos con Jesús resucitado, se sintieron motivados a salir por todo el mundo para compartir estas increíbles y buenas noticias. Fueron sus corazones ardientes lo que les dio el coraje para proclamar quién era Jesús y dar su mensaje de misericordia, esperanza y salvación. Fue el comienzo de la Iglesia.

Por lo tanto, este Domingo de Pascua se nos recuerda que debemos ser "Gente de Pascua": personas de esperanza, de alegría y de fe, motivadas para hablarle a la gente acerca de Cristo. Se nos recuerda que debemos ser fieles a su deseo de que cada uno de nosotros sea luz y sal para la tierra utilizando nuestros dones, talentos y recursos dados por Dios (Mateo 5: 13-16).

Mientras continuamos con la temporada de Pascua, celebraremos el domingo de la Divina Misericordia la próxima semana. Jesús le dijo a Santa Faustina Kowalska que las Divinas compuertas del cielo están abiertas el domingo de la Divina Misericordia. El perdón total de todos los pecados y el castigo por los mismos, está disponible para cualquier alma que haya ido recientemente a la Confesión y que lo reciba en la Sagrada Comunión ese día. En el 2000, el Papa Juan Pablo II canonizó a Santa Faustina y, durante la ceremonia, declaró:

"Es importante, entonces, que aceptemos el mensaje completo que nos llega de la Palabra de Dios en este Segundo domingo de Pascua, que de ahora en adelante en toda la Iglesia se llamará" Domingo de la Divina Misericordia".

¡Así que salgamos con alegría y esperanza esta Semana Santa! Y que Dios los bendiga a ustedes y a sus familias.

P. Carl.

ABRIR EL CORAZÓN A LA ESPERANZA

Nos narra el evangelio de hoy que: "El primer día después del sábado, María Magdalena fue al sepulcro muy temprano, cuando todavía estaba oscuro, y vio que la piedra que cerraba la entrada del sepulcro había sido removida". (Juan 20:1-2). Triste y confundida por el dolor y sin ninguna esperanza debió de haber llegado María Magdalena al sepulcro. Imagínese el silencio de la mañana. Gozar sin saber ella que era el silencio de la Pascua. Estar ahí de pie ante el sepulcro donde su amado había sido puesto. Dejarse ella interrogar por lo que ve. Abrir el corazón a la esperanza, a causa de un sepulcro vacío. ¡María quiere encontrar al Señor! Ninguno de los tres protagonistas de la escena ve al Señor todavía.

Tal como María, Pedro y el otro discípulo, debemos situarnos en la mañana de la Pascua. Hemos sufrido tanto durante la pandemia. Vacíos enormes se han tenido que llenar. Cada familia, cada persona ha formado su camino de búsqueda durante este tiempo. El Señor se deja encontrar. Solo hay que buscálo y seguirlo con el corazón disponible a su encuentro. La Iglesia se inunda de alegría con Dios al resucitar a Cristo de entre los muertos. El mensaje de este Domingo de Pascua es que todos los que sufren, saldrán vencedores. La muerte, ¿dónde está la muerte? Ya no existe, los sepulcros son provisionales, son de paso, quedarán vacíos al resucitar. Para entender todo esto hay que entender la Escritura: "Él debía resucitar de entre los muertos". (Juan 20:9).

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¡Aleluya! ¡Cristo ha resucitado! Acerca de la fiesta de hoy, San Agustín escribe: "Y se fue de nuestra vista para que pudiéramos regresar a nuestros corazones y encontrarlo allí. Porque él nos dejó, y he aquí, Él está aquí." La presencia resucitada de Cristo vive no solo en las alturas de los cielos, sino también en el frágil corazón humano. La vida de Cristo nos inspira y nos mueve a ver un futuro para cada ser humano y descubrir nuestro verdadero propósito y significado. Todo ser humano tiene el deseo de vivir y este grito se puede escuchar en su interior. Hay un anhelo de una conexión con Alguien más grande que nosotros mismos que da una importancia a nuestra existencia que no podemos suplir. Hoy, nuestras preguntas más profundas encuentran respuesta.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

"Is there a happy ending?" When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, "Is there a happy ending?"

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

que, a veces, queremos avanzar rápidamente en las cosas malas y saltar directamente al final feliz.

La Pascua es el final feliz definitivo. Es el día de los milagros. El día en que todas las piedras se remueven y todos los pecados son perdonados. Es el día que arregla todo.

Pero si aprendimos algo de esta semana, de la Pasión y muerte del Señor, es que no podemos adelantarnos y saltar las dificultades de la vida. Esa tensión, esa pérdida, ese miedo, es crucial, ¿no es así? Como católicos, somos quienes somos gracias a la Pascua. Pero la Pascua no ocurre sin el Viernes Santo.

Entonces, ¿la historia de la salvación tiene un final feliz? Sabemos que sí. Pero también recordamos que no solo el final importa.

Divine Mercy Novena

Good Friday, April 2
through
Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11

StMichaelLivermore.com/DivineMercy

Jesus asked that the Feast of the Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday.

He gave St. Faustina an intention to pray for on each day of the Novena, saving for the last day the most difficult intention of all, the lukewarm and indifferent of whom He said:

"These souls cause Me more suffering than any others; it was from such souls that My soul felt the most revulsion in the Garden of Olives. It was on their account that I said: 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by.' The last hope of salvation for them is to flee to My Mercy."

In her diary, St. Faustina wrote that Jesus told her:

"On each day of the novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy ... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls."
