TAKE UP YOUR CROSS

"It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God." Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It's no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God's wisdom clearly takes us in another direction. Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, "a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships." What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what's important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it's authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that's why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

They called the church together and reported what God had done with them. (Acts 14:27)

Psalm:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps 146)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."
(Rev 21:4)

Gospel:

I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. (Jn 13:34)

KEEP FORGIVING

LOVING AS NEW CREATIONS

"There's something different about you."

Think about the times in your life when this has been said to you. Maybe it was after someone complimented you on a job well done, and you realized that you were walking through life with a little more confidence. Maybe it was after meeting someone special, as you carried the glow of that relationship wherever you went. Chances are, if someone has noticed something different about you, it's because, inwardly, you've been changed by the loving or respectful actions of another person.

Love, you see, can make us into new creations. From the love of God flows the grace to tackle any challenge, including the biggest challenge of all: loving each other well. Christ knows what a big request this is. He was human, too. He came and lived among us. He knew intimately what it was to love people in the chaos of their own flaws. He knew what he was asking of us when he said, "As I have loved you, so you should also love one another."

In essence, this is the call to stewardship: loving as Christ loves, amidst the messiness of everyday reality. Loving with accountability, challenging ourselves and our brothers and sisters to be faithful even when it is hard. Loving with an unflinching sense of hospitality that welcomes even those we do not agree with or understand. Loving with gratitude, giving thanks for the great variety of ways that Christ can make himself known to us through others. It isn't easy — we all know that. But if we ask God for the grace to remain steadfast in this greatest commandment, we will be given what we need to live as new creations.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

We hear in Acts how Paul and Barnabas formed Gentile-believing churches in cities of the eastern Roman Empire. What do you think is needed today to build a strong faith community?

Second Reading:

In John's final visions, he sees "a new Jerusalem" coming down from heaven. God is fully present with humanity and there is no more suffering and death. How often do you think about the end-times?

Gospel:

As Jesus discussed his impending death with the disciples, he presents them with "a new commandment: love one another." In what ways are you challenged by this commandment?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

BENDECIRÉ AL SEÑOR ETERNAMENTE

El Tiempo de la Pascua trata de hacer nuevas todas las cosas, de mirar la vida con ojos nuevos. Es decir, con la memoria siempre viva y activa en la mañana de la resurrección, con la esperanza de que Cristo está presente entre nosotros. No fue un fantasma el que resucitó, es Jesús vivo que pide que lo toquemos como él mismo pidió al apóstol santo Tomás. El sufrimiento es cosa del pasado. ¿Crees esto? En la segunda Lectura de la Liturgia de la Palabra, el libro del Apocalipsis nos lo presenta así: "Esta es la morada de Dios entre los hombres; él habitará en medio de ellos; ellos serán su pueblo y él será su Dios – con ellos; él enjugará las lágrimas de sus ojos. Ya no habrá muerte ni lamento, ni llanto ni pena, pues todo lo anterior ha pasado" (Apocalipsis 21:3-4). Pero, para que el sufrimiento pase, necesitamos el amor, la compasión, la empatía de los unos para con los otros. Nada se hace por magia, se debe de poner la entrega, el compromiso a la persona.

"Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros. Ustedes deben amarse unos a otros como yo los he amado" (Juan 13:34-35). El Papa Francisco nos dice que "El amor es el único documento válido para ser reconocidos como discípulos de Jesús". Ahora bien, al ya saber todo esto, ¿cuál será nuestra respuesta? ¿Nos quedaremos impávidos sin hacer nada ante el sufrimiento y la injusticia? O, por el contrario, ¿lucharemos contra viento y marea por hacer el bien? ¡De ti depende todo!

PRIMERA LECTURA

Al llegar, reunieron a la comunidad y les contaron lo que había hecho Dios por medio de ellos y cómo les había abierto a los paganos las puertas de la fe.

SALMO RESPONSORIAL

Bendeciré al Señor eternamente

SEGUNDO LECTURA

Dios les enjugará todas sus lágrimas y ya no habrá muerte ni duelo, ni penas ni llantos, porque ya todo lo antiguo terminó.

EVANGELIO

Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros, como yo los he amado; y por este amor reconocerán todos que ustedes son mis discípulos.

SIGAN PERDONANDO

AMAR COMO NUEVAS CREACIONES

"Hay algo diferente en ti."

Piensa en los momentos de tu vida en los que se te ha dicho esto. Tal vez fue después de que alguien te felicitó por un trabajo bien hecho y te diste cuenta de que caminabas por la vida con un poco más de confianza. Tal vez fue después de conocer a alguien especial, ya que llevabas el brillo de esa relación dondequiera que ibas. Lo más probable es que, si alguien ha notado algo diferente en tí, es porque, interiormente, has sido cambiado por las acciones amorosas o respetuosas de otra persona.

El amor, como ves, puede convertirnos en nuevas creaciones. Del amor de Dios fluye la gracia para afrontar cualquier desafío, incluyendo el mayor de todos: amarnos bien los unos a los otros. Cristo sabe qué esta es una gran petición. Él también era humano. Él vino y vivió entre nosotros. Sabía intimamente lo que era amar a las personas en el caos de sus propios defectos. Él sabía lo que nos estaba pidiendo cuando dijo: "Como yo los he amado, también ustedes deben amarse los unos a los otros." En esencia, este es el llamado a la corresponsabilidad: amar como ama Cristo, en medio del desorden de la realidad cotidiana. Amar con responsabilidad, desafiarnos a nosotros mismos y a nuestros hermanos y hermanas a ser fieles incluso cuando sea difícil. Amar con un sentido inquebrantable de hospitalidad que da la bienvenida incluso a aquellos con los que no estamos de acuerdo o no entendemos. Amar con gratitud, dar gracias por la gran variedad de formas en que Cristo puede darse a conocer a nosotros a través de otros.

No es fácil, todos lo sabemos. Pero si le pedimos a Dios la gracia de permanecer firmes en este gran mandamiento, se nos dará lo que necesitamos para vivir como nuevas creaciones.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura:

En Hechos escuchamos cómo Pablo y Bernabé formaron iglesias de creyentes gentiles en ciudades del este del Imperio Romano. ¿Qué crees que se necesita hoy para construir una comunidad de fe fuerte?

Segunda Lectura:

En las visiones finales de Juan, él ve "una nueva Jerusalén" que desciende del cielo. Dios está plenamente presente con la humanidad y no hay más sufrimiento y muerte. ¿Con qué frecuencia piensas en los últimos tiempos?

Evangelio:

Mientras Jesús hablaba de su muerte inminente con los discípulos, les presenta "un mandamiento nuevo: amaos los unos a los otros." ¿De qué maneras te desafía este mandamiento?

ANNOUNCEMENTS | ANUNCIOS

LOOK FOR US AT THE THURSDAY FARMERS MARKET

St Michael Parish will have an info booth at the Thursday Farmers Market to help share the Good News with whoever would like to hear it! Stop by and say hello.

PLANNING YOUR WEDDING

Start the process at least 6 months in advance.

Step 1

Call the church office at 925-447-1585 to set up an appointment to meet with a priest.

Step 2

Visit the weddings page at StMichaelLivermore.com/marriage. Download, print and read all documents (see Documents to Download) to familiarize yourself with all policies/guidelines regarding weddings at St. Michael. This will address and clear up many of your initial questions.

Step 3

Bring your forms to the meeting. This will be an opportunity for the priest to get to know you, to help you understand Catholic marriage and to determine if you are free to marry. Both the bride and the groom need to attend this meeting. You will get your next steps at that time.

A FERVENT LIFE OF PRAYER

The resurrected Christ gives us the strength to do things we can never have imagined. Life will often give us mountains to climb, and we wonder how we will find the energy, ability, and determination to forge ahead. But, with a good dosage of faith and a fervent life of prayer we find ourselves succeeding and ascending to heights that once frightened us. What we realize after we have reached the other side is that this hardship we once saw as an obstacle has become a vehicle for something better and greater. We are stronger. The same is true with the Gospel. The prospect of loving one another may seem idealistic or unobtainable. Yet, when we risk moving beyond just looking out for or helping each other to actually LOVING each other, miracles happen. There is something wonderful that occurs with love. We see people in ways we never saw before, understanding and appreciating each other's journey. Love leads to reverence. Faith is strengthened and we move on to try again.

UNA FERVIENTE VIDA DE ORACIÓN

Cristo resucitado nos da la fuerza para hacer cosas que nunca hubiéramos imaginado. La vida a menudo nos dará montañas para escalar, y nos preguntamos cómo encontraremos la energía, la capacidad y la determinación para seguir adelante. Pero, con una buena dosis de fe y una ferviente vida de oración, nos encontramos triunfando y ascendiendo a alturas que una vez nos asustaron. Lo que nos damos cuenta después de haber llegado al otro lado es que esta dificultad que una vez vimos como un obstáculo se ha convertido en un vehículo para algo mejor y más grande. Somos más fuertes. Lo mismo ocurre con el Evangelio. La posibilidad de amarse unos a otros puede parecer idealista o inalcanzable. Sin embargo, cuando corremos el riesgo de ir más allá de solo cuidarnos o ayudarnos unos a otros para AMARNOS realmente, ocurren milagros. Hay algo maravilloso que ocurre con el amor. Vemos a las personas de formas en que nunca antes habíamos visto, comprendiendo y apreciando el viaje de los demás. El amor conduce a la reverencia. La fe se fortalece y seguimos adelante para intentarlo de nuevo.
