SIXTH SUNDAY OF Easter

JESUS SAID,
“I WILL ASK THE FATHER, AND HE WILL GIVE YOU ANOTHER ADVOCATE
TO BE WITH YOU ALWAYS,
THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH.”

John 14:16-17

The Spirit of Truth

martyrs is the seed of Christians.” We’re perhaps seeing in Samaria the fruit of the seed sown by St. Stephen in his martyrdom for Christ.

Second Reading

Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame (1 Peter 3:15-18)

If it isn’t clear by now, Peter is writing to a church that’s suffering or is likely to suffer. But the suffering of the Church, whether obvious or secret, is a fact of our history, too. It’s of the nature of Christian discipleship to suffer like Christ. Peter’s particular point this week is that Christ’s suffering was salvific and therefore, our sufferings should be as well. But if this is to happen, we need to know, the why of Christ’s suffering. He chose to suffer to “lead you to God,” the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous. That is, he suffered for us who were his enemies by sin. This is how he loved his enemies, not by speaking sentimental words of love to them, but by suffering for them. Those are the footsteps that we’re called to walk in. And we ought to have no illusions—they’re hard to follow.

Gospel Reading

I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21)

John begins his Gospel, “In the beginning was the Word,” and the importance of words in his Gospel is partly derived from that foundational statement. As the Word, Jesus is the definitive law of God. In himself he expresses the new law, the new commandment, the new covenant of love. He makes clear in this passage that like the old covenant, one must obey the commandments of God as an act of love for God. For the Jews and for Jesus, love and law aren’t opposed—they’re vitally linked.

This obedient love leads to “seeing” and “recognizing” in John. In the RSV edition, “recognize” is translated as “know,” which better connotes of an active relationship between the knower and the one known. So obedient love, keeping the commandments, leads to a “knowing” that’s mysterious and, perhaps, comparable to the knowledge of marriage. The world cannot know the Son, Spirit, or Father in this way; rather, only the obedient disciple can be caught up in this embrace. In that embrace, love and law melt into one; just as the vows of marriage are at one and the same time a law under which the spouses place themselves and a word of love that they share.

DIGGING DEEPER: Samaria

Samaria is a mountainous region in northern Palestine. In Old Testament times, it was captured by the Israelites from the Canaanites. When the Assyrians conquered the area, much of the population was taken into the Babylonian Exile. The region became a Roman province in 6 AD. In addition to meeting the Samaritan woman at the well, Jesus healed ten lepers on the border between Galilee and Samaria (Luke 17:11-19).

First Reading

The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).

This reading shows the growth of the Church in several ways. After Jerusalem, Samaria is to be the next, followed by the rest of the world. Philip is the one who preaches the Word with power in Samaria, picking up where Stephen left off. The deacons of the Church are seen as exercising the charism received from their Ordination, and this is confirmed by miraculous signs and conversions. We see, therefore, an extension of the ministry of the Church beyond the Apostles and an indication that her territory will extend throughout the world.

The mention that the crowds who heard the Gospel in Samaria were attentive “without exception” may also suggest the first instance of the principle that would become an axiom in the early Church: “The blood of

Grow in Discipleship

While our salvation was won by Jesus's Death, our lives in Christ are not completely fulfilled until we receive the Advocate, the Spirit of truth, that Jesus promised to send us. That Spirit of truth is the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. It is only through the Spirit that we are able to enter into the fullness of communion with the Father and the Son and embrace the Good News of the Gospel in our daily lives.

Today's First Reading shows us how that works. Although Jesus himself had passed through Samaria, and even revealed himself as the Messiah to the woman at the well, it wasn't until after the Holy Spirit had come that the people in that region were able to fully accept Philip and his teachings about Jesus. Then, once they were able to accept Jesus through Baptism, Peter and John came, prayed, laid hands on the people, and the Holy Spirit descended upon them.

This reading may shed some light on the important distinction between the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. Baptism brings us into the family of God, but Confirmation enables us to live out the Christian message with greater courage and conviction through the Holy Spirit.

Moreover, Jesus says that not only is the Spirit with us, but he also actually remains within us. This is why Jesus tells us that "I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you." Through the action of the Spirit, we are united in an unprecedented way with God and can truly become his sons and daughters.

Prayer

Picture yourself in the crowd in Samaria as Peter and John pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit. You watch as they lay hands on the people. Now imagine that Peter comes to you and lays hands on you. What do you tell him? What does he say to you?

Resolution

Ask the Holy Spirit to enter into your being in a new and profound way this week. Watch for evidence of his presence and give thanks.

Use a journal to write down your thoughts, reflections and your resolutions. Set aside some time this week to sit in the Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Chapel.

Prayers & Devotion

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest, And in our souls take up your rest;
Come with your grace and heavenly aid To fill the hearts which you have made.

Far from us drive the foe we dread,
And grant us your peace instead; So shall we not, with you for guide, Turn from the path of life aside.

Oh, may your grace on us bestow The Father and the Son to know;
And you, through endless times confessed, Of both the eternal Spirit blest.

Now to the Father and the Son, Who rose from death, be glory given, With you, O holy Comforter, Henceforth by all in earth and heaven.

Amen.

Prayer Requests

For the repose of the souls of Carlos Zuniga, David Wayne Combs, Marc Mattera and David Hom.

Prayers for the young men in our parish who are discerning a call to the priesthood.

News & Announcements

The Distinction Between Baptism and Confirmation

Through Baptism we come to share in God's life. The Holy Spirit dwells within us and we have a new relationship with God as his children through his Son, and are joined to the Body of Christ in the Church. Confirmation perfects the grace of Baptism and through the Holy Spirit deepens our communion with Jesus and the Church and strengthens us for our mission of faithfully and courageously witnessing to the Gospel with our lives in our world (see CCC 1316).

Please keep the EIGHTY-EIGHT teen confirmation candidates in your prayers. They will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Tuesday.

Bishop's Appeal

Ministry Focus: Faith and Formation

A portion of the Bishop's Appeal goes to help fund the Faith and Formation of our parish communities and many more in the diocese. Programs such as CYO, young adult ministries, and marriage preparation are just a few ministries funded by the Appeal.

As we go forth "United in Faith," it is the responsibility of all Catholics to grow deeper in relationship with God and become more faithful stewards of His gifts as we also share our faith in mission to all people.

Help for All Parishes:

100% of all funds collected over an individual parish's goal are returned directly to the parish. In 2016 Appeal, 36 parishes exceeded their Appeal goal. Parishes are set to get their rebate checks by the end of February.

We hope to see even more parishes exceed their goal in 2017!

Adoración Eucarística de Verano

Preparacion para la Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo el 18 de junio

La Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo (o Corpus Christi) es una celebración de Jesús presente en la Eucaristía. Únase a nosotros en la preparación de nuestros corazones para esta gran fiesta pasando tiempo en oración silenciosa en la Capilla de la Adoración durante las semanas an-teriores. Simplemente vaya a la capilla cuando pueda, o regístrate oficialmente para una hora específica una vez por semana enviando un correo electrónico a: Adoration@StMichaelLivermore.com

Que vuestra oración sea totalmente simple (San Juan Clímaco)

“Que vuestra oración sea totalmente simple; una sola palabra bastó al publicano y al hijo pródigo para alcanzar el perdón de Dios (Lc 15,21)... Ninguna búsqueda en las palabras de vuestra oración; ¡cuántas veces los tartamudeos simples y monótonos de los niños, hacen doblar el corazón de su padre! No os lancéis a hacer largos discursos a fin de no disipar vuestro espíritu buscando las palabras necesarias. Una sola palabra del publicano conmovió la misericordia de Dios; una sola palabra llena de fe, salvó al buen ladrón (Lc 23,42). Ser prolíjos en la oración, a menudo, no hace más que llenar el espíritu de imágenes y lo disipa, mientras que, a menudo, una sola palabra basta para recogerlo. ¿Te sientes consolado, atraído por una palabra de la oración? Párate en ella, porque es señal que nuestro ángel entonces ora con nosotros. No estés demasiado seguro, aunque hayas alcanzado la pureza, sino más bien una gran humildad, y entonces te sentirás con una gran confianza. Incluso si has subido la escalera de la perfección, ora para impetrar el perdón de tus pecados; escucha este grito de san Pablo: “Soy un pecador, yo, el primero” (1Tm 1,15)... Si estás revestido de dulzura y libre de toda cólera, no te va a costar mucho más liberar a tu espíritu de la cautividad.

Apelación del Obispo

Enfoque del Ministerio: Fe y Formación

Una parte de la Apelación del Obispo va a ayudar a financiar la Fe y la Formación de nuestras comunidades parroquiales y muchas más en la diócesis. Programas como CYO, ministerios de adultos jóvenes y preparación para el matrimonio son sólo algunos de los ministerios financiados por la Apelación.

A medida que avanzamos "Unidos en la Fe", es responsabilidad de todos los católicos profundizar su relación con Dios y convertirse en fieles administradores de Sus dones, compartiendo nuestra fe en la misión con todas las personas.

Ayuda para todas las parroquias:

El 100% de los fondos recaudados sobre la meta de una parroquia individual se devuelven directamente a la parroquia. En la Apelación del 2016, 36 parroquias superaron su meta de Apelación. Las parroquias están listas para recibir sus cheques de reembolso a fines de febrero iEsperamos ver más parroquias superar su objetivo en el 2017!

El fin de semana para este compromiso es el 11 de junio

Reflexiones de Domingo

CUANDO SE TE CALUMNIA

Cada una de las lecturas describen un tiempo de transición e incertidumbre. En los Hechos, los apóstoles están aprendiendo cómo responder a quienes buscan compartir la alegría de sanar a los enfermos y exorcizar espíritus impuros. En la primera carta de Pedro, la nueva comunidad cristiana se le recuerda que ellos serán calumniados. Su respuesta a ese sufrimiento está formada en el ejemplo de Jesús de su gentileza y reverencia. Los evangelios ofrecen las palabras de consuelo de Jesús a quienes están quedándose atrás. A todos quienes han perdido a Jesús ya en la crucifixión deben prepararse para perderlo una vez más. Pero esta vez a ellos se les promete que no serán abandonados. Ellos se quedan con la promesa que los nuevos mandamientos de Jesús son una continua guía a una vida que, por medio de la muerte y resurrección, une a quienes creen en Jesús, en el Padre y en el Espíritu.

El Padre Rafael está ausente en peregrinación del 21 de mayo al 5 de junio. Por favor recuerdalo en sus oraciones.

GUARDA MIS MANDAMIENTOS

Si guardar los mandamientos de Jesús es la clave para amarlo, ser amado por el Padre y acompañado por el Espíritu, entonces ¿qué elección tenemos para guardar sus mandamientos? Parece simple, pero a diferencia de los mandamientos con que Moisés bajó de la montaña, Jesús no nos dejó con diez normas de conducta que guíen nuestras acciones. Jesús nos dejó con un mandamiento mucho más complicado, amar a nuestros enemigos como a nosotros mismos. Este mandamiento requiere que nosotros primero nos amemos como Jesús nos amó. Nosotros debemos ver en nosotros mismos lo que Jesús vio en cada uno de nosotros. Jesús vio que también nosotros estamos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios y que llevamos con nosotros la fragilidad de nuestra humanidad. Nosotros debemos ver la misma devoción y humanidad en cada persona que encontramos en nuestro camino. No es solo que nosotros mismos veamos en el rostro de nuestra familia, amigos, conocidos y extraños. Es el rostro de Dios. Debemos comportarnos a la altura.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura -- Pedro y Juan les impusieron las manos, y recibieron el Espíritu Santo (Hechos 8:5-8, 14-17).

Salmo -- Que aclame a Dios con alegría toda la tierra (Salmo 66 [65]).

Segunda lectura -- Cristo murió en la carne, y luego resucitó por el Espíritu (1 Pedro 3:15-18)

Evangelio -- Yo rogaré al Padre y les dará otro Protector. No los dejaré huérfanos (Juan 14:15-21)
