The Most Holy Trinity

MAY 27, 2018

The Lord is God in the heavens above
and on earth below; there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:39

Fix This in Your Heart

Have you ever felt a tug to do something out of the ordinary? Maybe say something to someone you've never met before or call up an old friend to check in? This tug can make us feel uncomfortable; we aren't sure why we have this feeling we need to act, but we feel almost disobedient if we don't follow through. Oftentimes, these promptings are from the Holy Spirit, who puts things on our hearts in order for us to be Christ to others. Through Baptism and Confirmation, the Holy Spirit dwells in us. The next time you feel prompted to reach out, be bold in love and ask the Holy Spirit for the gift of courage.

First Reading Reflection

Deuteronomy 4:32–34, 39–40

Deuteronomy is Moses's re-explanation of the Law shortly before the Israelites enter the Promised Land. His audience consists of the second generation since the departure from Egypt. Although Moses himself will not be allowed to enter into the Promised Land, he is concerned that they know how to conduct themselves in their new home. His words in this reading provide a compelling reminder of the concern God has for them. They are his people, and he is eminently worthy of their trust and obedience. And thus they are called to make an act of faith: to acknowledge that "the Lord is Lord alone" and to never turn to other gods. This becomes a central part of the Shema, a prayer repeated daily by devout Jews.

On this feast of the Trinity, it is well to recall this important point: God is one, and he is the only God. No power can compare with his. The doctrine of the Trinity, that there are three Persons in one God, does not change this ancient affirmation of faith. Rather, it points believers to the source of God's oneness and might: the communion of Persons, equal in essence and power, who radiate the truth that God is love. And the love God shows for his people comes straight from his being.

Second Reading Reflection

Romans 8:14–17

This reading shows what it means to live the life of grace—the life of the Trinity. We might sum it up in one word: trust, for trust is the reversal of Adam's sin. To be led by the Holy Spirit is to live in trust. With this trust we are able to call upon the Father, to turn to him with a cry of love, not fear: "Abba, Father!" We obey his will in trust following the example of Christ's life. We share in Jesus's trusting relationship with the Father, particularly by embracing the Cross in our lives and also by being responsive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

The life of grace allows us to surrender all in trust to God in all circumstances, no matter how bad they seem. In this way we are united ever more closely to God, becoming his children in deed and truth. As we surrender to the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the plan of the Father through the Cross of Christ, we also participate in the saving action of God. All our actions become holy and take on an eternal significance.

Gospel Reading Reflection

Matthew 28:16–209–10

This scene from St. Matthew's Gospel is the conclusion of the whole Gospel and the culmination of the Evangelist's Resurrection account. In obedience to the directive of the Risen Christ, the eleven have come to the mountain in Galilee, where they see Jesus alive again. Here they exhibit a conflict that almost every follower of Jesus can sympathize with: "They worshipped, but they doubted.” Jesus’s response is consoling: he draws near to them, assures them of his power and divinity, and gives them their apostolic commission. They are to carry on his work in the world: to make disciples, baptize them, and teach them to observe what he has commanded. In other words, they are to reunite the fallen world with God, drawing men back into the life of the Trinity.

Some might object that Jesus did not baptize, as another Evangelist notes. However, it is his own “baptism” (see Luke 12:50), that is, his Death and Resurrection, which is communicated in the Sacrament. Hence it brings about an existential change in those who receive it, a truly new mode of being: divine adoption.

“Teach them to observe all I have commanded you,” says Our Lord. This is the formation that follows Baptism. Children who come into a family must learn how to participate in the life of the family, Jesus’s final words, “I am with you always,” manifest the tenderness of God. God wants union with his children. All the effort, the sacrifice, the suffering, the establishment of the Church, has this one goal: to bring about God’s glory by his children living in joyful, fruitful union with him.

Discussion

Watch the short Opening the Word video reflection on today’s readings at StMichael.FORMED.org

In today’s Second Reading, we are told we must suffer with Christ in order to be glorified with him. Do you avoid suffering or complain when you are in the midst of it? How have you experienced the glory of Christ after suffering a trial?

Jesus tells us in today’s Gospel that “all power in heaven and on earth has been given to [him].” Do you trust in his power? Do you turn to him when you are in need of help?

Digging Deeper Modeling the Trinitarian Life

Through the revelation of the Holy Trinity, we are invited to a deeper participation in the life of God. We are made in God’s image and likeness, which means that we have the gifts of free will and intellect, and also a tendency and a calling to live in a community of love and truth. This community models God’s communion of Persons revealed to us in the Trinity. We can see this most clearly lived out in a marriage and family. A husband and wife, equal beings, love one another and give their lives for the other in union with God’s will. In addition, through God’s grace, they have the power to come together and through their gift of self, bring forth new life. This life-giving love is a powerful example to us of God’s life as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Science, the Origin of the Universe, and God

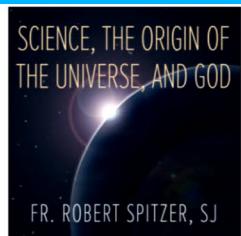

Where Faith and Science Align

All too often, science is employed as a means of disproving the tenants of Christianity. In this informative talk, Fr. Robert Spitzer, SJ – expert in physics, philosophy, and theology – debunks the incompatibility of science and Faith as he discusses the origin of the universe.

The suggested donation of $10 per intention goes to the priest who celebrates the Mass.

Take some time now to delve deeper into today's readings. Ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you through God's word.

PRAYER

On the mountaintop, Jesus commands his disciples to "go and make disciples of all nations." Imagine yourself receiving this command along with the disciples. How do you react to his words? What does his command mean? How will you prepare yourself for this task? Take comfort in Jesus's words: "I am with you always, until the end of the age."

RESOLUTION

Make a personal mission statement. Include in it your gifts that you can use in evangelizing others and how you will use those gifts in your daily encounters with people around you to bring them closer to Christ. Make a commitment to start each day asking for the guidance of the Holy Spirit throughout your day.

Download the Opening the Word Prayer Journal at StMichael.FORMED.org to write down your thoughts, your reflections, and your resolutions.

Why Should I Give to the Bishop's Appeal?

The word "Catholic" means "universal," and our faith cares for all our sisters and brothers regardless of the parish in which they worship.

One should give to the Appeal because there are certain ministries and services that cannot be provided by a parish, but only by a diocese.

Some people may say that as long as we support our parish, we should not be concerned with the needs of other parishes, schools, recruitment, education and formation of our future clergy, and forming our youth and young adults in our faith beyond our own parish. Through the Bishop's Appeal, the diocese is able to carry out these ministries which is only possible through the generosity of our parishioners. Below are the various programs and ministries funded through the Bishop's Appeal:

Faith & Formation

Diocesan pastoral ministries and services focus on strengthening our faith, our families, and building up our parish communities by engaging people in the daily life of the Church as they strive to live as faithful disciples of Christ.

- Liturgy
- Respect Life Justice Programs
- Vietnamese, Filipino & Latino Ministries
- Stewardship Education
- Ethnic Pastoral Centers
- Marriage & Family Life Ministries
- Marriage Preparation Programs
- Youth Retreat Center
- Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Programs
- Catholic Scouting
- Young Adult Ministries
- Children & Youth Ministries

Religious Education & Formation

Gifts to the appeal help support religious education and formation programs for thousands of youth and adults annually.

- Faith Formation Programs
- Evangelization & Outreach Efforts
- RCIA
- Religious Education Teachers

Training

- Serra Catechetical Institute
- St. Francis de Sales School for Pastoral Ministry

Clergy Formation & Support

From initial formation into retirement, the Diocese provides support for our priests. Additionally continued updating and renewal for priests and deacons who faithfully serve our people is supported by your gift to the Bishop's Appeal.

- Permanent Diaconate Program
- Office of Vocations
- Seminarian Education & Formation
- Priest Retirement & Long-term Care
- Continuing Education Programs

Support for Catholic Schools & Parishes in Need

Each year, the Diocese provides subsidies and grants to assist with operating expenses at inner-city Catholic schools, and for parishes facing extraordinary and immediate financial challenges.

- Operating Subsidies
- Capital Expenditure Grants
- Emergency Funding Support

Assisting Local Parishes

Every parish has its own needs and plans for growth and new ministries to better serve their parishioners' and the local community. The Bishop's Appeal will again return 100% of all monies collected over each individual parish's goal for use at the parish level.

Safe Environment Programs

Providing a safe haven for children, young adults and vulnerable adults.
