FOURTH SUNDAY OF

Easter

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD;
THERE IS NOTHING I SHALL WANT.

Psalm 23:1

The Good Shepherd

First Reading

All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Peter announces to his audience, “Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.” In that phrase is fulfilled Jesus’s command that his gift of salvation be preached first in Jerusalem. Peter, as his vicar on earth, now takes up that concern and will extend it in what will be an ever-widening sphere of proclamation “throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

Peter’s directness seems to work: he doesn’t mince words as to the complicity of his audience in the Crucifixion, yet they respond with contrition. Peter’s intrepidity in announcing both the fault and favor that Jesus’s death brings is a clear sign of God’s work.

Peter had denied even an association with Jesus the night of Jesus’s arrest and trial. Now, here’s Peter crying out, welcoming such a connection between himself and Jesus, before the whole assembly of Israel. Only grace could do that! The same grace that’s at work in Peter seems to be at work through Peter, whose courageous proclamation of the Gospel draws thousands of souls into that grace.

Second Reading

Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).

This reading reminds us that the Resurrection can’t be a promise of life without Jesus’s passage through death. By virtue of our Baptism, we participate in the same dynamic spiritual process as Jesus. We pass, by grace, through death to life. “For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps.” Peter suggests an approach to suffering which is opposite to the first impulse in our nature.

We often want to tell ourselves that when we suffer, God doesn’t will our pain. We want to tell ourselves, and others, that suffering doesn’t matter so much in the long run. God didn’t will suffering and death; sin brought that into the world. Peter doesn’t say suffering is unimportant in comparison with the good that will come, but he says, “It was for this you have been called.” He reminds us that Jesus didn’t just suffer—he embraced suffering. Only love can transform the way we look at suffering, and Jesus is Love Incarnate. Jesus teaches us to embrace what we cannot change and that embrace transforms pain into the path to life.

Gospel

The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

The way of the Lord Jesus isn’t simply a path but a way to a place: the Church. He doesn’t say, “Live anywhere you want,” but rather, “Whoever enters through me will be saved.” The implication is that elsewhere one may not be saved. Sheep need protection. Jesus invites us to see ourselves in that role of utter dependence on him; he invites us to enter in and be kept safe by him, the Good Shepherd. He invites us to the humble realization that we’re like sheep who, without him, are subject to those who would “steal and slaughter and destroy.”

Those who don’t want to follow the Shepherd, who don’t like the sound of his voice when he tells us we’re like sheep, demonstrate by that very fact that they’re not his. Only those who recognize themselves in his description of his sheep have really heard his voice. Those who don’t hear his voice are likely to say something like, “I resent the implication that I’m no more than a sheep,” or “You people are nothing but sheep.” To which we sheep might respond, “Yes, ‘The sheep hear his voice as the shepherd calls his own... by name.’”

Grow in Discipleship

We like the idea of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, but we seldom like the idea of being sheep—people who blindly follow anyone or anything. However, that’s not what sheep and shepherds are like in real life. In cultures where sheep are still herded by individuals, a deep bond and trust exist between the shepherd and his flock. The sheep know and trust their shepherd so intimately that all he has to do is call them by name. And he knows each of his sheep so well that he has given them individual names! That’s the kind of relationship Jesus is talking about in today’s Gospel ... a deep bond of love that enables us to trust that Jesus is leading us on the path that leads to abundant life. He tells us it is through listening to him and his voice that we can truly find the green pasture and still water that we all desire to have.

But how are we to know and hear our shepherd’s voice? The only way we can hear him is by finding some quiet time away from all the noise of life so that we can concentrate on prayer. This doesn’t necessarily mean the formal reciting of words, but simply being in the presence of the One who loves us. We need to silence ourselves in order that we can begin to discern the small, still whisper in our hearts. It is only when we take that time that we are able to enter into the kind of relationship with God that gives us abundant life here, and in the next world to come.

Meditation

Imagine you are with the disciples as Jesus begins to talk. He looks directly at you and says, “Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep.” What does this mean to you? Do you see yourself as one of Jesus’s sheep? How is he your gate? Now hear him say to you, “Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” What kind of pasture does your soul long for?

Set aside some time this week and turn off your computer, your cell phone, and any other electronic devices. Go into a private place where you can meditate on what it means to have Jesus as your shepherd.

DIGGING DEEPER: Scriptural Shepherds

Many of the great figures of Scripture were shepherds, including Abraham, Jacob, Moses, King David, and the prophet Amos. In the New Testament, angels first announced the birth of Jesus to shepherds in the fields. Throughout the Scriptures, the image of a shepherd tenderly caring for his flocks is an image of God’s care for his people.

Prayers & Devotion

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes
my soul.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

News & Announcements

Quick Reminders:

- There will be no Scripture Safari Vacation Bible School this year, due to the hall renovation.
- This weekend is 2nd Collection Sunday for our parish's Maintenance and Improvement fund. If you forgot your checkbook, you can always make a one-time contribution at membership.faihdirect.net/CA602
- As the weather warms up, please remember that we preserve the sacredness of the Mass by dressing modestly. Shoulders and knees covered, with modest necklines, are an outward sign of our inner intention of respect.
- As you leave church, kindly straighten the hymnals and mis-salettes, pick up any trash, and leave the kneeler up. Those celebrating at the next Mass will appreciate a tidy environment.

Dear St. Michael Community,

My name is Alison Wilkie, and it is my honor to be selected as the Principal for St. Michael Catholic School. The 2017 – 2018 school year will be my 19th in the Diocese of Oakland. For 10 years I served as a teacher in grades 1 – 8, followed by 2 years as Director of Academic Success at Salesian College Preparatory, and for the past 6 years I served as Principal of St. Jerome Catholic School. I am a faith-filled, practicing Catholic who has a passion for sharing the Good News of Christ with children and their families.

Throughout my teaching and administrative career, I have focused on challenging students to reach their full academic potential and creating learning environments which allow the students to grow as creative, critical thinking young people. Most importantly, I have always created a culture steeped in the traditions of the Catholic faith and teaching children to follow Jesus' call to serve those who are in need.

I look forward to collaborating with the faculty and staff along with the School Board, PTG, and parish leadership as we prepare our children to be faith-filled, life-long learners who are contributing citizens.

Jesus taught us that in order to grow as a community, we must break bread together. Throughout the next couple of months, I look forward to getting to know each of you. Most importantly, I look forward to being able to break bread together as a community.

Blessings,
Alison Wilkie

Reflexiones de Domingo

¿QUÉ VAMOS A HACER?

Las lecturas describen ese tiempo cuando los seguidores de Jesús estando confundidos y atemorizados buscaban a los apóstoles para preguntarles que tenían que hacer después de la crucifixión y resurrección. La respuesta parece simple. Ellos deben creer que Jesús, a quien habían crucificado, es el Señor y Cristo, Dios y hombre. Ellos deben reconocer su complicidad en su muerte y buscar perdón. Ellos deben ser bautizados. En la primera carta de Pedro la norma para su comportamiento es el comportamiento de Jesús, igual a nosotros menos en el pecado, cargó nuestros pecados y sin devolver insultos o amenazas. Pedro presenta la imagen del pastor que cuida de nosotros que hemos ido por el camino incorrecto. El Evangelio no enfatiza el liderazgo del pastor, sino que cada uno de nosotros somos llamados por nuestro nombre.

Rápidos recordatorios:

- Este año, en razón de la renovación del vestíbulo no se ofrecera la Escuela de estudio de la Biblia y las escrituras "Safari".
- Este fin de semana tendremos una segunda colecta para el fondo de mantenimiento y mejora de nuestra parroquia. Si ha olvidado su talonario de cheques, puede hacer una contribución única a member-ship.faithdirect.net/CA602
- A medida que el clima es mas calido, por favor recuerde que debemos vestir modestamente para preservar lo sagrado de la misa. Los hombros y las rodillas cubiertas y los escotes modestos, son un signo externo de nuestra intención interna de respeto.
- Al salir de la iglesia, por favor tenga la amabilidad de enderezar los libros de himnos y misales, de recoger cualquier basura, y dejar el reclinatorio para arriba. Aquellos que vienen a celebrar en la próxima misa apreciarán un ambiente ordenado.

PON ATENCIÓN Y ESCUCHA TU NOMBRE

El énfasis en el Evangelio de Juan no está en el liderazgo del pastor. El enfoque está específicamente en la voz del pastor. Escuchamos al pastor que nos llama por nuestro nombre. No se nos llama para hacer un seguimiento pasivo. Se nos llama para reconocer nuestro nombre cuando se menciona. Debemos escuchar para que podamos oír la voz de aquel que verdaderamente sabe quiénes somos, no superficialmente, como "soy doctor", o "soy mamá". Nuestro verdadero nombre conocido por nuestro Creador es mucho más que las funciones que hacemos o el trabajo que realizamos. Si mi nombre es quién verdaderamente soy, entonces debo escuchar a aquel que me llama "perdonado", "misericordioso" y "amado". Porque este es mi verdadero nombre. Esta es mi verdadera naturaleza.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura -- Los que creyeron fueron bautizados (Hechos 2:14a, 36-41).

Salmo -- El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta (Salmo 23 [22]).

Segunda lectura -- Han vuelto al pastor y guardián de sus almas (1 Pedro 2:20b-25).
