LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF TRUTH

"Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start."

- Pope Francis

We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God's pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day's end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost.

FIRST READING

For so the Lord has commanded us, "I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth." (Act 13:47)

PSALM

We are his people, the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING

For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water. (Rev 7:17)

Gospel

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." (Jn 10:27-28)

We are the sheep of His flock.

PSALM 100

RELUCTANT SHEEP

Sheep get an awfully bad rap, linguistically. Some are quick to label people as "sheep" if we think they haven't sufficiently questioned authority or if they're too willing to go along with someone else's plan. We say someone has "the wool over their eyes" if they aren't willing to see what we think is very obvious. "A wolf in sheep's clothing" is what we call someone looking to take advantage of those too gullible to identify a real threat.

Taking all this into account and considering how often we are referred to as sheep in Scripture, you've really got to wonder if God trying to tell us something about ourselves.

If you look at the phraseology associated with sheep, it's no wonder that nobody wants to be one. Sheep are innocent. Sheep can't protect themselves. They're vulnerable and easily misled.

We want to see ourselves as the opposite of all that. We like to think we're shrewd, with plenty of common sense. We want to believe that we don't have to rely on anybody for anything. We would sooner identify with the wolf than with the sheep — at least the wolf can take care of himself.

We do this because we often resist the need to rest in the greatness of God. Like a child walking to school alone for the first time (forgetting his mom is following watchfully in the car), we want to think we can handle it all by ourselves.

The truth is that God is trying to tell us something by comparing us to sheep: You don't have to do this on your own. Every time I look at an obstacle and think that there is no way around it, I am forgetting that I have a shepherd who knows the location of the gate.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading

We hear today how Paul and Barnabas were met with resistance and hostility in Pisidian Antioch on their first missionary journey. How do you not get discouraged when your spiritual journey is difficult?

Second Reading

During John's vision of heaven, he often has "one of the elders" teach him about the vision he is seeing. Who has been a good spiritual guide for you?

Gospel

Jesus speaks of an unbreakable solidarity between him and those who follow him ("my sheep"). In what ways do you experience this unity with Jesus already in your faith?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

TE ALABAMOS, PASTOR ETERNO.

TE ALABAMOS, PASTOR ETERNO

En este IV Domingo de Pascua, dedicado al Buen Pastor.

Reflexionaremos una pequeña parte de la Homilía sobre los Evangelios de San Gregorio Magno (540-604). Fue el sexagésimo cuarto papa de la Iglesia Católica. Es uno de los grandes padres de la Iglesia latina o de occidente. "Yo soy el buen pastor, yo conozco a mis ovejas, es decir las amo. Y mis ovejas me conocen. Como queriendo decir abiertamente: correspondo al amor de quien ama. El conocimiento precede siempre al amor de la verdad.

Pregúntense, estimadísimos, si son ovejas del Señor, si lo conocen, si conocen la luz de la verdad. Hablo no solamente del conocimiento de la fe, sino también de aquel del amor; no solamente de creer sino también de obrar. San Juan, el evangelista, en efecto explica: 'Quien dice: conozco a Dios, pero no observa sus mandamientos, es un mentiroso' (1 Juan 2:4)". Y continúa su homilia: "Como el Padre me conoce y yo conozco al Padre, y ofrezco la vida por las ovejas" (San Gregorio).

Nuestro actual Pastor, el Papa Francisco, nos da el mensaje de la siguiente manera: "Nuestra vida está totalmente segura en las manos de Jesús y del Padre, que son una sola cosa: un único amor, una única misericordia, reveladas de una vez y para siempre en el sacrificio de la cruz. Él es nuestro guía, nuestro maestro, nuestro amigo, nuestro modelo, pero sobre todo es nuestro salvador. A veces Jesús nos llama, nos invita a seguirle, pero tal vez sucede que no nos damos cuenta de que es Él". ¿Qué voces escuchas actualmente? ¡Señor, que sea uno contigo y escuche tu voz!

siguiente manera: "Nuestra vida e

PRIMERA LECTURA

Así nos lo ha ordenado el Señor, cuando dijo: Yo te he puesto como luz de los paganos, para que lleves la salvación hasta los últimos rincones de la tierra".

SALMO RESPONSORIAL

El Señor es nuestro Dios y nosotros su pueblo. Aleluya.

Segunda Lectura

Porque el Cordero, que está en el trono, será su pastor y los conducirá a las fuentes del agua de la vida y Dios enjugará de sus ojos toda lágrima".

EVANGELIO

"Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen. Yo les doy la vida eterna y no perecerán jamás; nadie las arrebatará de mi mano. Me las ha dado mi Padre, y él es superior a todos, y nadie puede arrebatarlas de la mano del Padre. El Padre y yo somos uno"

Somos ovejas de Su rebaño.

SALMO 100

OVEJA REACIA

Las ovejas tienen una mala reputación lingüística. Algunos se apresuran a etiquetar a las personas como "ovejas" si creemos que no han cuestionado lo suficiente la autoridad o si están demasiado dispuestos a aceptar el plan de otra persona. Decimos que alguien tiene "la lana sobre los ojos" si no está dispuesto a ver lo que creemos que es muy obvio. "Un lobo con piel de oveja" es lo que llamamos a alguien que busca aprovecharse de aquellos demasiado crédulos para identificar una amenaza real.

Tomando todo esto en cuenta y considerando la frecuencia con que se nos refiere como ovejas en las Escrituras, realmente debes preguntarte si Dios está tratando de decirnos algo sobre nosotros mismos. Si observas la fraseología asociada con las ovejas, no es de extrañar que nadie quiera ser una. Las ovejas son inocentes. Las ovejas no pueden protegerse a sí mismas. Son vulnerables y se les puede engañar fácilmente.

Queremos vernos a nosotros mismos como lo opuesto a todo eso. Nos gusta pensar que somos astutos, con mucho sentido común. Queremos creer que no tenemos que depender de nadie para nada. Preferiríamos identificarnos con el lobo que con la oveja; al menos el lobo puede cuidar de sí mismo.

Hacemos esto porque a menudo resistimos la necesidad de descansar en la grandeza de Dios. Como un niño que camina solo a la escuela por primera vez (olvidando que su mamá lo está siguiendo atentamente en el auto), queremos pensar que podemos manejarlo todo por nosotros mismos. La verdad es que Dios está tratando de decirnos algo comparándonos con ovejas: no tienes que hacer esto tu solo.

Cada vez que miro un obstáculo y pienso que no hay forma de evitarlo, me estoy olvidando de que tengo un pastor que conoce la ubicación de la puerta.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura

Hoy escuchamos cómo Pablo y Bernabé encontraron resistencia y hostilidad en Antioquía de Pisidia en su primer viaje misionero. ¿Cómo no te desanimas cuando tu camino espiritual es difícil?

Segunda Lectura

Durante la visión del cielo de Juan, a menudo tiene a "uno de los ancianos" enseñándole acerca de la visión que está teniendo. ¿Quién ha sido un buen guía espiritual para ti?

Evangelio

Jesús habla de una solidaridad inquebrantable entre él y sus seguidores ("mis ovejas"). ¿De qué manera experimentas esta unidad con Jesús ya en tu fe?

DO WE HEAR AND FOLLOW?

Before we can welcome Jesus as the Good Shepherd, we have to hear his voice. God's voice breaks into the dialogue of our lives in myriad ways, but we have to be attentive and receptive in order to hear it. It comes through the beauty of creation, the warmth and energy of love, the gift of compassion both received and given, the sacred miracle of life, and the orderly and purposeful design of things and in the truth found in God's commandments. Once we see the wisdom behind the commandments and teachings God places before us and are attentive to listening for His direction, we can begin to take the necessary steps and follow Him. We are easily misled and there are many convincing "shepherds." Only one is Good. It is only the Good Shepherd who can lead us away from the evils that can hurt us and bring us to the good. We may not always like where God asks us to go, and it may not be the path others prefer to take. But we have to follow it because we trust that our kind Shepherd will keep us safe.

¿OÍMOS Y SEGUIMOS?

Antes de que podamos recibir a Jesús como el Buen Pastor, tenemos que escuchar su voz. La voz de Dios irrumpen en el diálogo de nuestra vida de mil maneras, pero tenemos que estar atentos y receptivos para escucharla. Viene a través de la belleza de la creación, el calor y la energía del amor, el don de la compasión tanto recibido como dado, el milagro sagrado de la vida y el diseño ordenado y con propósito de las cosas y en la verdad que se encuentra en los mandamientos de Dios. Una vez que vemos la sabiduría detrás de los mandamientos y las enseñanzas que Dios pone ante nosotros y estamos atentos a escuchar Su dirección, podemos comenzar a dar los pasos necesarios y seguirlo. Nos engañamos fácilmente y hay muchos "pastores" convincentes. Solo uno es bueno. Solo el Buen Pastor puede llevarnos al bien y alejarnos de los males que pueden herirnos. Puede que no siempre nos guste el lugar donde Dios nos pide que vayamos, y puede que no sea el camino que otros prefieren tomar. Pero tenemos que seguirlo porque confiamos en que nuestro noble Pastor nos mantendrá a salvo.
