Pentecost SUNDAY

THERE APPEARED TO THEM TONGUES AS OF FIRE,
WHICH PARTED AND CAME TO REST ON EACH ONE OF THEM.
AND THEY WERE ALL FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Acts 2:3-4

Through the Eyes of Faith

First Reading

Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

The Jewish feast of Pentecost was both a harvest festival and a celebration of the giving of the law on Mount Sinai after the Passover. The events surrounding the giving of the law can be seen in Exodus, chapters 19 and 20. God demonstrated his power with remarkable signs on Sinai so that the covenant formed with Israel might be riveted in the memories of his people.

The author of the Book of Hebrews speaks of these events in Exodus, contrasting it with the new Christian covenant: "You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them," (The author of Hebrews goes on to say, "But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem," (v. 22; RSV: 2CE). He goes on to also mention the angels and the assembly of the first-born of a new covenant, the mediator of which is not Moses, but Jesus, God Incarnate. Pentecost is this new covenant assembly on Mount Zion, the location of the Upper Room where Mary and the Apostles gathered in prayer to await the gift of God's Spirit and the fullness of the new covenant in Christ. When we assemble for Mass with the angels and the first-born above to recall that event, we are taken up into that originating event of our faith and united with the heavenly Jerusalem.

Second Reading

In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13).

In this passage from Paul's great ecclesiological (relating to the theology of the Church) chapter from 1 Corinthians, we see that God's new covenant people are Spirit-formed. The principle theme is the unity of the Church born from the one Spirit who inspires all the various gifts with which we are to be endowed. St. Paul's experience was of a Church rich in spiritual gifts, so that he could say, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." In the Revised Standard Version the same text (12:7) is rendered, "To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good."

We might want to ask ourselves: In what way do I manifest the Spirit to others for the common good of the Church? And if we want to get some ideas as to how we might manifest the Spirit, we should read the middle verses of this passage, which we don't hear at Mass, 12:8-10. There we see that wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, miracles, prophecy, discernment of spirits, tongues, and the interpretation of tongues are given to each one individually as the Spirit wills (v. 11). Is this the Church we see today? If not, perhaps we have not yielded to the coming of the Spirit. This is the day to begin.

Gospel Reading

Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23).

In the feast of the Ascension we noted that the Gospel reading for that day actually reported an event prior to the Ascension, a meeting after the Resurrection of Jesus and his disciples in Galilee, during which Jesus told them that they were to disperse throughout the world baptizing and making disciples. Similarly, in the readings for Pentecost we hear about a post-Resurrection appearance of Jesus to his Apostles prior to Pentecost, in which he tells them about a critical part of their future ministry. Though on the Ascension Jesus instructed the Apostles in their ministry of teaching and Baptism, today he gives them the power to forgive sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Jesus breathes the Spirit on them for this purpose, saying to his bishops, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Here Jesus echoes what he had said earlier to them: "Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 18:18). Now they receive the gift of the Spirit to perform that ministry. Of all the wonderful gifts that the Spirit bestows upon the Church, this is perhaps one of the greatest, coming to us through the ministry of our bishops and priests.

Grow in Discipleship

This week we celebrate Pentecost, the feast of the Church's birth. With a roaring of the heavens and in tongues of fire, the Holy Spirit comes and enlightens the Apostles. Peter begins to preach with boldness and authority what Christ's life and Death truly means.

From that moment, the great mission of the Church begins. The Apostles were emboldened to spread the Gospel, not on their own, but through the power of the Holy Spirit who descended on the upper room that spring day.

Who and what is the Holy Spirit? In many ways, the Holy Spirit is the most difficult of the three Persons of the Trinity for us to comprehend, yet he is fully and truly God, co-equal with the Father and Son. Indeed, the Holy Spirit is the bond of love between the Father and the Son. The mutual, eternal, perfect love of the Father and the Son is the third Person of the Holy Trinity—the Holy Spirit.

When we are baptized, the Holy Spirit is breathed into our souls, but the Spirit's work within us is intensified in the Sacrament of Confirmation.

When we are confirmed, like the Apostles, we are strengthened to give greater witness to the faith. The Holy Spirit comes to each of us, bestowing his gifts. He directs us in a particular way, as a member of the Body of Christ, for the common good of the entire Church.

DIGGING DEEPER: Confirmation

"Baptism, the Eucharist, and the sacrament of Confirmation together constitute the 'sacraments of Christian initiation,' whose unity must be safeguarded. It must be explained to the faithful that the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace.<sup>89</sup> For 'by the sacrament of Confirmation, [the baptized] are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.'"<sup>90</sup> —CCC 1285

Prayers & Devotion

PRAYER

"The Spirit makes one man a teacher of divine truth, inspires another to prophesy, gives another the power of casting out devils, enables another to interpret holy Scripture. The Spirit strengthens one man's self-control, shows another how to help the poor, teaches another to fast and lead a life of asceticism, makes another oblivious to the needs of the body, trains another for martyrdom. His action is different in different people, but the Spirit himself is always the same." (St. Cyril)

What action of the Holy Spirit that St. Cyril mentions do you notice most in your life? What action of the Spirit do you want to allow more into your life? Spend a few minutes in silent prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to help you in that way.

RESOLUTION

Once you have determined a potential gift of the Spirit in your life, consider ways that you might bring that gift into fullness in your family, your work, and your parish.

Parish Prayer Requests

You NEED Confirmation

At Baptism, you received the Holy Spirit, but He is activated in your soul at Confirmation in a "... special outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost."

From this fact, Confirmation brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace:

- it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation which makes us cry, "Abba! Father!"
- it unites us more firmly to Christ;
- it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us;
- it renders our bond with the Church more perfect

Pentecost Sequence

In the Middle Ages, sequences were added to the liturgy to expand on and explain the meaning of certain feasts and celebrations. Today only four remain: the obligatory ones on Easter and Pentecost and optional ones on The Most Holy Body and Blood (Corpus Christi) and Our Lady of Sorrows. Most often, the sequences were attached to the gospel acclamation.

At the beginning and end of the great Easter season, the faithful proclaim: "Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal" (Easter Sequence); "Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray" (Pentecost Sequence). The Pentecost sequence is a beautiful composition attributed to the late 12th/early 13th century Archbishop of Canterbury Stephen Langton. This composition captures a wide range of activities of the Spirit, among them bringer of light, source of goods for the poor and all of us, comforter, sweet refreshment, solace, healer, strength, guide, source of joy. On this day when the church celebrates the coming of the Spirit and the sending of the disciples to continue Jesus' saving mission, it is especially fitting to draw attention to the Gospel as we sing our request for the Spirit to come and dwell within us.

Reflexiones de Domingo

SEGURIDAD EN LOS NÚMEROS

A los apóstoles y a todos los creyentes en Jesús les han tocado tiempos difíciles. Pasaron por la crisis del Jueves Santo y tocaron fondo el Viernes Santo, la incertidumbre del Domingo de Pascua, y las varias apariciones de Jesús después de su muerte y resurrección. Ellos no habían reconocido a Jesús y cuando lo hicieron le preguntaron si de verdad era él. Durante todo este tiempo ellos permanecieron juntos. El libro de los Hechos los pone a todos en un lugar, juntos, cuando el viento sopla y llena la casa de lenguas de fuego que se posan sobre ellos. Así ya ellos pueden comunicarse y los entienden por quienes no los habían entendido. Cada uno reconoce que esto es un milagro de Dios. Juan nos recuerda y los discípulos que recibieron el Espíritu trae paz y la necesidad de la acción. Ellos recibieron el Espíritu para que puedan ser enviados al mundo a perdonar los pecados.

ACCIÓN EN EL ESPÍRITU

Cuando nuestro mundo se pone de cabeza, cuando enfrentamos incertidumbre acerca de lo que es real, cuando estamos inseguros de nuestro porvenir, cuando no sabemos lo siguiente que debemos hacer, no queremos estar solos. Tampoco los discípulos y todos aquellos que amaron a Jesús. Ellos quisieron estar unidos cuando necesitaron darse cuenta de lo que les estaba pasando y de lo que se les iba a pedir. Hay seguridad en los números, pero ni los apóstoles ni nosotros podemos permanecer juntos. El Espíritu requiere que vayamos a la acción. Todas las manifestaciones del Espíritu se dan para que nos beneficien a nosotros y al mundo. Los diferentes dones dados por el Espíritu requieren que realicemos diferentes obras, muchas formas de servicio. Pero no trabajamos solos. El Espíritu siempre está con nosotros.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura -- Quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y se pusieron a hablar idiomas distintos (Hechos 2:1-11).

Salmo -- Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu, y renueva la tierra (Salmo 104(103)).

Segunda lectura -- Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo (1 Corintios 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Evangelio -- Así como el Padre me envió a mí, así yo los envío a ustedes (Juan 20:19-23).
