GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"Please, let not my Lord grow angry if I speak up this last time. What if there are at least ten there?" He replied, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." (Gn 18:32)

Psalm:

Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me. (Ps 138)

Second Reading:

He brought you to life along with him, having forgiven us all our transgressions. (Col 2:13)

Gospel:

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." (Lk 11:9-10)

WHEN I CALLED, YOU ANSWERED

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable. Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

WRITE IN YOUR JOURNAL

First Reading:

In his dialogue with the Lord, Abraham questions the idea of justice and divine retribution. What questions do you have for the Lord?

Second Reading:

Paul encouraged the Gentile believers in the city of Colossae to understand that all who have faith in Jesus (Jews and Gentiles alike) share in the death and resurrection of Jesus. How do you help fellow Christians who feel disenfranchised?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches his disciples to be persistent and bold in their prayers to the Father. How would you characterize your prayer life?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

A lo largo de servir en el ministerio de la catequesis, muchas personas me han preguntado: ¿Cuál es la mejor manera de hacer oración? Cuando los discípulos le preguntan a Jesús lo mismo, él les participa su propia experiencia de oración: hablar con el Padre del cielo que nos ama y nos conoce y sabe perfectamente lo que nos hace falta. El Padrenuestro, oración que nos lleva a saber dónde está Dios, que Él es Santo, que nos perdona siempre, que nos da el pan de cada día, y que nos libra de todo mal.

"Pidan y se les dará, busquen y hallarán, llamen a la puerta y les abrirá. Porque todo el que pide recibe, el que busca halla y al que llame a la puerta se le abrirá" (Lucas 11,9-10). ¿Qué le pides a Dios hoy? ¿De qué le quieres hablar? El Papa Francisco nos da su catequesis sobre la oración y nos dice que: "La oración es el primer y principal instrumento de trabajo que tenemos en nuestras manos. Insistir a Dios no sirve para convencerle, sino para reforzar nuestra fe y nuestra paciencia, es decir, nuestra capacidad de luchar junto a Dios por las cosas realmente importantes y necesarias. En la oración somos dos: Dios y yo luchando juntos por las cosas importantes". Por esa razón, Abraham, insistió tanto en su oración para salvar a Sodoma. Fue un diálogo de petición y una respuesta de amor.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura

"No se enoje mi Señor, hablaré sólo una vez más, ¿y si se encuentran sólo diez?" Contestó el Señor: "Por esos diez, no destruiré la ciudad"

Salmo Responsorial

Te damos gracias de todo corazón.

Segunda lectura

Pero él les dio una vida nueva con Cristo, perdonándoles todos los pecados.

Evangelio

Así también les digo a ustedes: Pidan y se les dará, busquen y encontrarán, toquen y se les abrirá. Porque quien pide, recibe; quien busca, encuentra, y al que toca, se le abre.

CUANDO LLAMÉ, TÚ RESPONDISTE

Algunos de nosotros tenemos ese amigo del que constantemente estamos descubriendo cosas nuevas. Tal vez hemos conocido a esta persona desde hace diez o incluso veinte años, y un día en el almuerzo descubriremos que es descendiente directo de un presidente fallecido o que una vez conoció a una celebridad importante.

"Nunca preguntaste," dirán encogiéndose de hombros.

Tan molesto como puede ser, tiene mucho sentido, ¿no? Nunca preguntamos. Hay algo extrañamente sagrado sobre el acto de pedir algo. Requiere humildad. Requiere gracia. Requiere que estemos despiertos, que seamos conscientes, que seamos vulnerables.

Con demasiada frecuencia caemos en un patrón de presunción, incluso cuando se trata de información.

Vamos por la vida pensando que una gran cinta transportadora cósmica de lo que queremos nos va a pasar rodando y apenas tendremos que extender los brazos. Leemos nuestra Biblia y escuchamos todas estas asombrosas promesas del Padre que nos ama, y nos volvemos algo complacientes. Él tiene esto, pensamos, y cerramos los ojos para tomar una siesta en el viaje de la vida, seguros de que alguien más estará atento a las señales de alto y los giros equivocados.

Es verdad: Dios tiene esto. Él va a cuidar de nosotros. Pero Él quiere que tengamos una relación con Él. Él quiere que seamos participantes activos y receptivos en nuestra propia salvación. Ve su paciencia con las súplicas de Abraham a favor de los justos de Sodoma: quiere responder, no simplemente decir. Quiere que permanezcamos despiertos durante el viaje.
