GOSPEL REFLECTIONS

TRANSFORM GREED INTO GRATITUDE

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

PSALM 95

WHAT WE STORE IN THE BARN

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas.

Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don't we? If the details aren't exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors "with wisdom and knowledge and skill," in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I'll let you in on a secret: this isn't a sad story. I've only told you part of it. This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn. This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.

WRITE IN YOUR JOURNAL

First Reading:

Ecclesiastes speaks of "vanity" in the sense of emptiness or futility, such as those who seek to build their legacy or those who suffer with a restless heart. How are you able to remain focused on the important things in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Colossians that the key to focusing on "what is above, not on what is on earth" is to live a moral and upright life, grounded in your faith in Christ. Who do you know who does this well?

Gospel:

Jesus tells the parable of the rich fool in response to a question about inheritance, warning the crowd about over dependence on possessions. How do you balance your material needs with "what matters to God?"

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

*Señor, ten

©LPI

"El hombre ha sido creado para alabar, hacer reverencia y servir a Dios nuestro Señor" (San Ignacio de Loyola, fundador de los Jesuitas, cuya fiesta se celebra el 31 de julio). Alabar y servir a Dios es la fuente de la felicidad en la vida del ser humano, y cuando uno descubre esto en su experiencia de vida, es que descubre la felicidad. La primera lectura nos advierte de los penares de la vida y de lo que pasa al acumular riquezas y poner el corazón en ello. "Después de haber trabajado con inteligencia, sabiduría y habilidad, uno tiene que dejárselo todo a otro que nada ha hecho" (Eclesiastés 2,21).

Cuando estamos contentos porque nos va bien en la vida, por ejemplo: éxito en el trabajo, en el estudio, economía estable, una familia feliz y mucho más, es que nos pasa como el hombre rico del Evangelio, del que nos habla Jesús en su parábola. Esta persona no encontraba lugar para su cosecha. Y claro, turbado por la codicia, no pensaba que Dios es el dueño de la vida. El Papa Francisco, en otras palabras, explica lo tercos que somos a veces y como Dios nos espera: "Dios es fiel en su amor, y hasta obstinado. Siempre nos espera con esperanza, incluso cuando nos encerramos en nuestras tristezas, rumiando continuamente los males sufridos y el pasado... Dios, sin embargo, es obstinadamente esperanzado: siempre cree que podemos levantarnos y no se resigna a vernos apagados y sin alegría". ¡Señor, dame generosidad para compartir lo que tengo!

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura

En efecto, ¿qué provecho saca el hombre de todos sus trabajos y afanes bajo el sol? (Eclesiastés (Cohélet) 2-22

Salmo Responsorial

Señor, ten compasión de nosotros.. (Ps 89)

Segunda lectura

Puesto que ustedes han resucitado con Cristo, busquen los bienes de arriba, donde está Cristo, sentado a la derecha de Dios. Pongan todo el corazón en los bienes del cielo, no en los de la tierra... (Col 3:1-2)

Evangelio

Pero Dios le dijo: '¡Insensato! Esta misma noche vas a morir. ¿Para quién serán todos tus bienes?' Lo mismo le pasa al que amontona riquezas para si mismo y no se hace rico de lo que vale ante Dios". (Lc 12:20) Así también les digo a ustedes: Pidan y se les dará, busquen y encontrarán, toquen y se les abrirá. Porque quien pide, recibe; quien busca, encuentra, y al que toca, se le abre.

CUANDO LLAMÉ, TÚ RESPONDISTE

Algunos de nosotros tenemos ese amigo del que constantemente estamos descubriendo cosas nuevas. Tal vez hemos conocido a esta persona desde hace diez o incluso veinte años, y un día en el almuerzo descubriremos que es descendiente directo de un presidente fallecido o que una vez conoció a una celebridad importante. "Nunca preguntaste," dirán encogiéndose de hombros. Tan molesto como puede ser, tiene mucho sentido, ¿no? Nunca preguntamos. Hay algo extrañamente sagrado sobre el acto de pedir algo. Requiere humildad. Requiere gracia. Requiere que estemos despiertos, que seamos conscientes, que seamos vulnerables.

Con demasiada frecuencia caemos en un patrón de presunción, incluso cuando se trata de información. Vamos por la vida pensando que una gran cinta transportadora cósmica de lo que queremos nos va a pasar rodando y apenas tendremos que extender los brazos. Leemos nuestra Biblia y escuchamos todas estas asombrosas promesas del Padre que nos ama, y nos volvemos algo complacientes. Él tiene esto, pensamos, y cerramos los ojos para tomar una siesta en el viaje de la vida, seguros de que alguien más estará atento a las señales de alto y los giros equivocados. Es verdad: Dios tiene esto. Él va a cuidar de nosotros. Pero Él quiere que tengamos una relación con Él. Él quiere que seamos participantes activos y receptivos en nuestra propia salvación. Ve su paciencia con las súplicas de Abraham a favor de los justos de Sodoma: quiere responder, no simplemente decir. Quiere que permanezcamos despiertos durante el viaje.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

ESCRIBE EN TU CUADERNO

Primera Lectura:

En su diálogo con el Señor, Abraham cuestiona la idea de justicia y retribución divina. ¿Qué preguntas tienes para el Señor?

Segunda Lectura:

Pablo animó a los creyentes gentiles de la ciudad de Colosas a comprender que todos los que tienen fe en Jesús (tanto judíos como gentiles) comparten la muerte y resurrección de Jesús. ¿Cómo ayudas a otros cristianos que se sienten desfavorecidos?

Evangelio:

Jesús enseña a sus discípulos a ser persistentes y audaces en sus oraciones al Padre. ¿Cómo caracterizarías tu vida de oración?

FACILITY REPORT

Thank you for your continued support of our monthly Maintenance & Improvement collection. Here are just a few things your donations have covered this month:

Due to a tripping hazard, we have removed the concrete curb stops from the two handicap parking stalls near the breezeway.

We replaced the cores on the church door locks as a temporary solution to an ongoing security issue. A more permanent solution is in process.

We are also working on developing an easy procedure for parishioners to submit a repair request, so that when you notice something broken, our maintenance team can take care of it.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Monday, August 15

Because the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary falls on a Monday this year, it is not a Holy Day of Obligation. The faithful are welcome to celebrate Mass if they choose to, but it is not required. See the Mass times on Page 6.
