The Divine Physician

Have you ever been so sick that you needed to rely on a family member or a friend to help you get to the doctor? Sometimes, we are unable to be healed on our own. We need someone else to bring us. Today we will read about a man who was brought to Jesus and how grateful he was to those who loved him enough to present him before the Divine Physician.

First Reading

Reflection

Isaiah 35:4–7a

It is easy to let fear obscure our faith. So many of us deal with anxiety—a form of fear—that we need medicines, counseling, and other methods for limiting its negative effects on our lives.

Nevertheless, no method or medicine can offer a complete answer to our anxieties, because ultimately, all of our fears are based in suffering and death. The prophet, Isaiah, however, reveals to us that we should not fear death. While he frequently discusses the judgment of God against the sinful Israelite people, he reveals God's divine plan to redeem the people. After the time of judgment, there will be a time of restoration and salvation for God's people. The prophet's words speak to us as well, "Say to the fearful of heart: Be strong, do not fear!" (Isaiah 35:4). God has come to save us from our sin and set us free from our enslavements. Isaiah explains that, when this salvation comes, it will be known through physical miracles: the blind shall see, the deaf shall hear, the lame shall leap. When Jesus comes, he actually cites this passage to confirm his identity as the Messiah (see Matthew 11:5), and he indeed performs miracles that fulfill Isaiah's predictions. Isaiah also describes God's deliverance with the image of a nourished desert: his deliverance will nourish us like the dry desert being nourished with water and blossoming flowers. For us, these images symbolize the spiritual fecundity that penetrates our lives when we come to faith in Christ and abandon the desert of sin. In practice, true faith can dispel the dark clouds of fear.

Second Reading

Reflection

James 2:1–5

People talk about "networking" or even "customer relationship management." Such terms are not necessarily problematic, but they push us in the direction of using other people as instruments, of only being interested in others insofar as they can help us to reach our goals. The Lord, however, does not want us simply to use other people. He wants us to recognize and honor the dignity of every human, because all of us are created in the image and likeness of God. St. James warns us against the sin of partiality or favoritism. He uses a Greek word that means to "lift up one's face." This concept is used in the Old Testament to describe preferential treatment given to wealthy or powerful people in legal matters, but James is using this phrase within the context of the early Church. He warns us against showing partiality to popular or powerful people at Church and treating lower-status people with disrespect. James condemns such judgmental behavior as making us "judges with evil designs" (2:5). He views partiality as a sin that violates the Second Greatest Commandment of love of neighbor. Every person we meet should be treated with respect and honor regardless of whether he or she can give us favors. When we encounter the weak, the outcast, and the poor, we have an opportunity either to honor them as our neighbors or to risk not being Christian by disrespectful behavior.

Gospel Reading

Reflection

Mark 7:31–37

This short Gospel passage about Jesus healing a deaf and mute man offers us a snapshot into his conversion experience. The scene unfolds in four stages: the man has a need, he asks to be healed, he encounters Christ, and then he proclaims what Christ has done for him. First, the deaf man recognizes his need for Jesus. His physical inability to hear symbolizes our spiritual deafness to God's ways, and his muteness represents our inability to tell others the Good News, even when we have received it. The crowd brings this deaf man to Jesus for healing, which shows that they recognize his spiritual authority. Jesus takes the man aside privately, and he touches the man's ears and touches his tongue with his own spit. Christ does not offer up a prayer of supplication but instead issues a powerful command, "Be opened!" (7:34). This command reveals that Jesus is the Son of God, which means that he is divine, and that he is Lord over all creation. He fundamentally exercises his authority. Indeed, the man is healed in fulfillment of Isaiah's prediction in the First Reading (see Isaiah 35:4-7a), which means that the time of restoration for the people of Israel has come. Christ's healing touch allows the man to hear and speak, and we can relate to this miracle in our own spiritual lives. When we come to faith, we truly "hear" the Word of God for the first time and then begin to "speak" about it to others. The whole crowd is "astonished" and joins in the proclamation of the Good News. They can't help themselves but to tell other people what they have seen. Like this deaf man, we too are called to recognize our need for Jesus, ask for his help, encounter him in the sacraments, and then proclaim his message to others.

Join the Discussion

Watch the short Opening the Word video reflection at StMichael.FORMED.org, on the community tab. Respond to these questions there, or in person with a friend.

What do you fear? What causes you to be anxious?

Do you struggle with judgment on external appearances, or do you look at everyone as created with equal dignity in the image and likeness of God?

Digging Deeper Going Away with Jesus

The most challenging part of allowing Christ to heal us is actually allowing it to happen. It usually does not happen overnight and can be painful, just like recovering from surgery can be incredibly painful. Jesus took the man away from the others in order to heal him. Christ takes us away from what makes us comfortable, away from our past, away from the crutch of bad habits, so that he may purge us from our sins and give us true freedom in his love. As painful as it may be to reject our bad habits, do not be afraid to follow Christ where he asks you to go. You will not be alone, he is with you.

Bishop Barber Calls for a Novena & Fasting

In regards to the recent sexual abuse scandals, Bishop Barber is calling for an independent outside audit of our Diocesan Review Board policies, to ensure we are faithfully following the procedures to investigate sexual abuse by clergy. He will also review the membership of the current Diocesan Review Board to make sure it has the number of lay experts needed in the fields of law enforcement, the judiciary, parents, a clinical professional specializing in treatment of childhood trauma and survivors.

Additionally, he is calling for his brother priests, deacons and the lay faithful to join with him in the following:

1. Praying the Novena to St. Joseph, patron of the Universal Church, from Sept. 6-14
2. Participating in a Day of Prayer, Penance and Reparation for the sins members of the Church have committed against innocent children on Friday, Sept 14, Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.
3. Holding a Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Sept 14 in each parish, to pray in reparation, for healing for the victims, and for the cleansing and reform of the Church and her ministers.

Mass & Holy Hours at St Michael's Friday, September 14

8:30 am Mass, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the Church until 3pm, ending with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Novena Prayer to Saint Joseph for the protection and renewal of the Church September 6—September 14

To you, St. Joseph we bring our broken hearts and all of the discouragement that weighs us down. Impurity and scandal have wounded our Church and have brought much shame, sorrow and tears. We ask you dearest St. Joseph, to be our guide along this very dark path, for you are the model of faith, purity and devotion that we need so desperately. May the Lord send forth the burning fire of the Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the Church, and the world. O St. Joseph, pray ceaselessly for the Church during this time of suffering and great mourning. May this current pain inflicted upon the Church be transformed by the power of Christ's cross, and lead to further renewal and continued purification. Amen.

Dear St Michael Parishioners,

My name is Jumin 'Paul' Park, seminarian. You may call me Paul. I was born and raised in South Korea. I am presently a seminarian at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park studying for the diocese of Suwon in South Korea. I studied at the Suwon Catholic seminary in Korea for six years, including two years for military service. It was in February of 2017 that my diocese sent me to the United States to study. I finished my second year of Theology at the St. Patrick's seminary in May, 2018.

Now, I am on my Pastoral Year of formation and will be serving at St. Michael for one year. I am very thankful to Fr. Carl Arcosa for accepting me and also glad to have the opportunity to serve at your Parish.

I still need to learn more about parish life. I would say that this pastoral year will be challenging for me, but I will do my best and try to help you all as much as I can.

I am looking forward to seeing each of you, being with you, and learning from you all.

Thank you and God bless you.

In Peace,
Seminarian Paul

All Things Are Possible for God

By Fr Joshua Waltz

As a young man, the last thing Fr. Joshua Waltz ever thought he would be was a Catholic priest. But a series of unconnected choices ultimately led him to enter the seminary. In this talk, Fr. Waltz shares an incredible vocation story that involves heartbreak, robbers, Europe, and several miracles—all showing that there is nothing more exciting than a life lived for Jesus Christ.

2:00 pm -5 pm

Including an additional hour of closure will allow our office staff a period of uninterrupted time to return phone calls and emails and catch up on tasks our busy parish office demands.

Thank You for Serving St Mary's

Thank you to all who worked to make our August St Mary's Center Dinner a success. St Mary's clients loved the food and the companionship. Over and over, they expressed their gratitude and joy.

From those who donated money and ingredients, baked homemade cookies, worked on Saturday to prepare food, offered prayers and encouragement, showed up in Oakland on Sunday to serve and wash dishes: you rock!

Estimados feligreses de San Miguel:

Mi nombre es Jumin 'Paul' Park, seminarista. Pueden llamarme Paul. Nací y crecí en Corea del Sur. Actualmente soy seminarista en el Seminario de San Patricio en Menlo Park, estudiando para la diócesis de Suwon en Corea del Sur. Estudié en el seminario católico de Suwon en Corea durante seis años, incluidos dos años para el servicio militar. En febrero de 2017 mi diócesis me envió a los Estados Unidos a estudiar. Terminé mi segundo año de Teología en el seminario de San Patricio en Mayo de 2018. Ahora, estoy en mi año pastoral de formación y serviré en San Miguel por un año. Estoy muy agradecido al P. Carl Arcosa por aceptarme y también me alegro de tener la oportunidad de servir en su Parroquia. Todavía necesito aprender más sobre la vida parroquial. Diría que este año pastoral será un reto para mí, pero haré todo lo posible e intentaré ayudarlos a todos tanto como pueda. Espero verlos a todos ustedes, estar con ustedes y aprender de ustedes.

Gracias y que Dios los bendiga.

En paz,
Seminarista Paul

En respuesta al escándalo de abuso sexual,

el Obispo Michael Barber llama a sus hermanos sacerdotes, diáconos y fieles laicos a unirse a él en lo siguiente:

1. Rezar la Novena a San José, patrono de la Iglesia Universal, del 6 al 14 de septiembre
2. Participar en un Día de Oración, Penitencia y Reparación por los pecados que los miembros de la Iglesia han cometido contra niños inocentes el viernes 14 de septiembre, Fiesta de la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz.
3. Celebrar una Hora Santa con la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento el 14 de septiembre en cada parroquia, para orar en reparación, para sanar a las víctimas y para la limpieza y reforma de la Iglesia y sus ministros.

NOVENA ORACIÓN A SAN JOSÉ para la protección y renovación de la Iglesia 6 de septiembre al 14 de septiembre

Traemos ante ti, San José, nuestros corazones quebrantados y todo el desaliento que nos agobia. La impureza y el escándalo han herido a nuestra Iglesia y han traído mucha vergüenza, tristeza y lágrimas. Queridísimo San José, te pedimos que seas nuestro guía en este camino tan oscuro, pues tu eres el modelo de fe, pureza y devoción que necesitamos desesperadamente. Pedimos que el Señor envíe el fuego ardiente del Espíritu Santo y renueve la faz de la Iglesia y del mundo. Oh, San José, ruega incesantemente por la Iglesia en este tiempo de duelo y sufrimiento. Que este dolor actual infligido a la Iglesia sea transformado por el poder de la cruz de Cristo y conduzca a una renovación y purificación continua.

Amen

Misa y Horas Santas en San Miguel Viernes, 14 de septiembre

8:30am Misa, siguiendo con la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento en la Iglesia hasta las 3pm, terminando con la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia.
