FROM FR CARL

May 17, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

There are so many uncertainties brought by COVID-19. People are sick and grieving. People are worried about finances and job loss. People are lonely and depressed in their homes. St Michael family, do not lose hope! St Julian of Norwich has been a comfort to me, and I hope she will be to you as well. St Julian of Norwich was an English anchorite of the Middle Ages who wrote the earliest surviving book in the English language written by a woman: Revelations of Divine Love. In this book, she describes a vision of Jesus informing her, "...all shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well." For many centuries, Christians have experienced so many trials and hardships, but their faith shined during those times of uncertainties and sufferings. I pray the same faith of St Julian and countless Christians who have gone before us also keeps us going.

As we trust in the Lord, I also humbly ask that you trust me, our clergy, parish staff and ministry leaders. Together, we will continue to serve you with dedication and love. We know how eager you are to bring back Mass in person and our community's vibrant ministries. However, we must carefully follow the precautions and orders given to us by the State of California and the County of Alameda, for the safety of us all. Our governor has outlined a four-phase plan for re-opening our community. As of this writing, we are in the beginnings of Phase 2. In Phase 3, churches will be allowed to reopen for worship, but with a limited in number of people and with restrictions in place. It appears that Phase 4 – resuming unrestricted community gatherings – is a long way off.

As we move toward Phase 3, I would like all our ministries and committed parishioners to focus on three things: St Vincent de Paul, Liturgy and Pastoral Care. Please see pages 4 and 5 for details on this vision.

It is my hope and prayer that we can continue to work together as a united parish on mission and that these services and liturgies will give us assurance that God continues to strengthen and nourish us.

Your pastor,

Fr Carl

P.S. As always, thank you for your continued financial support of St Michael parish. We are able to continue on our mission because of you!

THE MISSION!

3.

PASTORAL CARE

We will focus on growing our Homebound Ministry and Grief Support Ministry. Since, many of our current ministry members are above 60 years old, we will need younger volunteers to be trained as ministers. Email FrJohn@StMichaelLivermore.com for more information.

ADDITIONAL LIMITATIONS

Non-Essential Ministries

During Phase 3, all non-essential ministries will refrain from having in-person meetings and gatherings at St Michael's. If you wish to gather with your groups, please use social media resources such as Zoom or Webex. At your own risk and as determined by local officials, you might be able to gather in your own homes during Phase 3.

Essential Ministries

Essential ministries are those dedicated to Sacramental preparations and parish operations. First priority for facilities use will be given to ministries such as First Communion, Confirmation, Faith Formation, RCIA, St Michael School and Parish Council, Liturgy and St Vincent de Paul.

Let us focus on these three priorities of St Vincent de Paul, Liturgy and Pastoral Care. And please assure me of your 100% cooperation with the limitations and guidelines for the safety of each parishioner and for the spiritual nourishment of all.

May God bless us and thank you all for your generous support to our mission and our parish!

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

May 31, after the homily at all Livestream Masses

Most Holy Virgin Mary, tender Mother of men, to fulfill the desires of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the request of the Vicar of Your Son on earth, we consecrate ourselves and our families to your Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart, O Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and we recommend to You, all the people of our country and all the world. Please accept our consecration, dearest Mother, and use us as You wish to accomplish Your designs in the world.

O Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and Queen of the World, rule over us, together with the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ, Our King. Save us from the spreading flood of modern paganism; kindle in our hearts and homes the love of purity, the practice of a virtuous life, an ardent zeal for souls, and a desire to pray the Rosary more faithfully.

We come with confidence to You, O Throne of Grace and Mother of Fair Love. In flame us with the same Divine Fire which has inflamed Your own Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. Make our hearts and homes Your shrine, and through us, make the Heart of Jesus, together with your rule, triumph in every heart and home.

Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Do you understand the true spiritual meaning of hope? Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness. It is found when we place our trust in Christ's promises and rely not on our own strength, but on the help of the Holy Spirit. Hope, when seen in this way, doesn't set its sights purely on the things of this world but on the promises of God to come. Hope always is linked with faith and love. Often our hope can become too self-focused and something that is only about me and things that matter to me. Christ's resurrection reminds us that it is not ultimately for this purpose. What is the reason for your hope? Our Easter season provides the opportunity for us to again assess whether it is the kingdom of heaven and life eternal or something else.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Then they laid hands on them
and they received the Holy Spirit.
(Acts 8:17)

PSALM

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.
(Ps 66) or Alleluia.

SECOND READING

For Christ also suffered for sins once,
the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to
God. (1 Pt 3:18a)

GOSPEL

"I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me,
because I live and you will live."
(Jn 14:18-19)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We hope for many things: passing an exam, finding our true love, securing sustainable work, or surviving an illness. We often seek to have God be a part of what we hope for and desire, almost trying to convince Him that our agenda is what is ultimately important. While our particular hopes may appear to be what needs to be achieved in order for us to be happy, they really are not. Our lesser, more personal hopes can distract us from true hope.

When God became a human being, a powerful message was sent: all that is authentically human is found in the divine. As the human Jesus lived and died in order to show us that he truly is the universal Christ, we have to keep our sight focused on our eternal truth and destiny and who we truly are. We have to be careful when we allow our earthly concerns to distract us. True hope is found when we place our trust in Christ's promises and don't rely on our own strength. True hope focuses on striving toward the fulfillment of God's promises and not simply on achieving what we think we need in this life. Hope always travels with two friends — faith and love. In this trio of virtues, we find the very presence of God born in every human being. These are God's greatest gifts, and they lead us to the fullness of His presence.

As with faith and love, we cannot see hope with just our human eyes. We don't carry this virtue within us to use solely for our own personal agenda. Hope is not something that simply comes with the human package. As with faith and love, hope is a gift that is given to us to draw us closer to our eternal truth. Faith, hope, and love are signs that there is something far greater going on in us and something greater to persevere in obtaining. The true divine gift of hope is what will endure any hardship we encounter, especially those that will come from authentically living the Gospel. With all that is happening in our lives, in our church, and in our world, what is the reason for our hope? Ask God for the fortitude to see His eternal gift as the reason we get up in the morning and do the things we do.

Compassionate and Loving Father,
In the face of confusion and concern
impart to us the calm of Your presence.
In You allow us to find hope and healing.
Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.
Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
Wrap Your arms around our world
and hold us in Your love.
Allow us at this time of trial to then
serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Calculating Love

Have you ever Googled the word “love”? If you did, you may have come across something called the Love Calculator. It is a website where you can supply two names, and the percentage chance of a successful relationship is calculated. Curious, I entered my name and my wife’s. Twenty percent! I hope my wife doesn’t read this!

I then decided to add my name and God. A whopping thirteen percent! Then for the last attempt, I put in my name and Jesus. A very disappointing zero percent! Am I that unlovable? Of course, then I read the small print at the bottom of the page: “Please note that this site has no serious intention whatsoever.” Shocking!

The truth is, the modern world increasingly seems to have no real idea what love is or how to determine when love is real. That makes the seemingly simple words of Jesus about loving God and your neighbor very complex indeed. How can you love God with your all your heart, soul, and mind when you have no idea what the act of loving means? And then, what constitutes loving a neighbor? To make it more complicated, Jesus commands you to love them like you love yourself. I bet you can agree with me that there are a lot of people out there who do not even come close to loving themselves. Knowing what love is in modern times is just not that easy. How is a well-meaning person able to find out the true meaning of love?

You don’t know what true love is? I think you do. Turn your eyes to that crucifix hanging in your church, home, or office. The answer was given over 2,000 years ago, and the image remains for the entire world to see.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Sign Before the Gospel

Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: “May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart.” In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

In Acts 2, Luke records how the Holy Spirit initially descended upon the Jewish believers in Jerusalem. In today's reading, we hear how the Holy Spirit also descended upon the Samaritans who believed in Jesus. What lesson do you think Luke is conveying to us?

Second Reading

Peter advocates for being prepared to defend the faith, even in the face of danger. How does one find the courage to defend the faith in a hostile environment?

Gospel Reading

Jesus reveals to his disciples that the intimacy between himself, the Holy Spirit, and the Father can be shared with fellow believers. How do you experience the intimacy of our triune God?
